Play reviews and special theatre forums will be held throughout the season under the direction of Betty Walton. Workshop plays for the coming season will be under the direction of Helen Ketcham.

COMING

The next major production will be Arsenic and Old Lace, October 1, by Joseph Kesselring—to be directed by Marge Cain (Mrs Harry P Cain.) The funniest show on Broadway in many a season. Swift, satirical, exciting. It is full of chills and chuckles. Aunt Abby and Aunt Martha are two sweet old homicidal maniacs whose particular charity is expressed in poisoning old men. Yet on the surface, they are the sweetest old ladies who ever baked cookies and invited the minister to tea. Don't miss it, with its chills, love and laughter, this promises to be one of the comedy hits of the season.

Eugene Linden will present Marriage of Figaro in September at the Little Theatre.

RADIO WORK SHOP

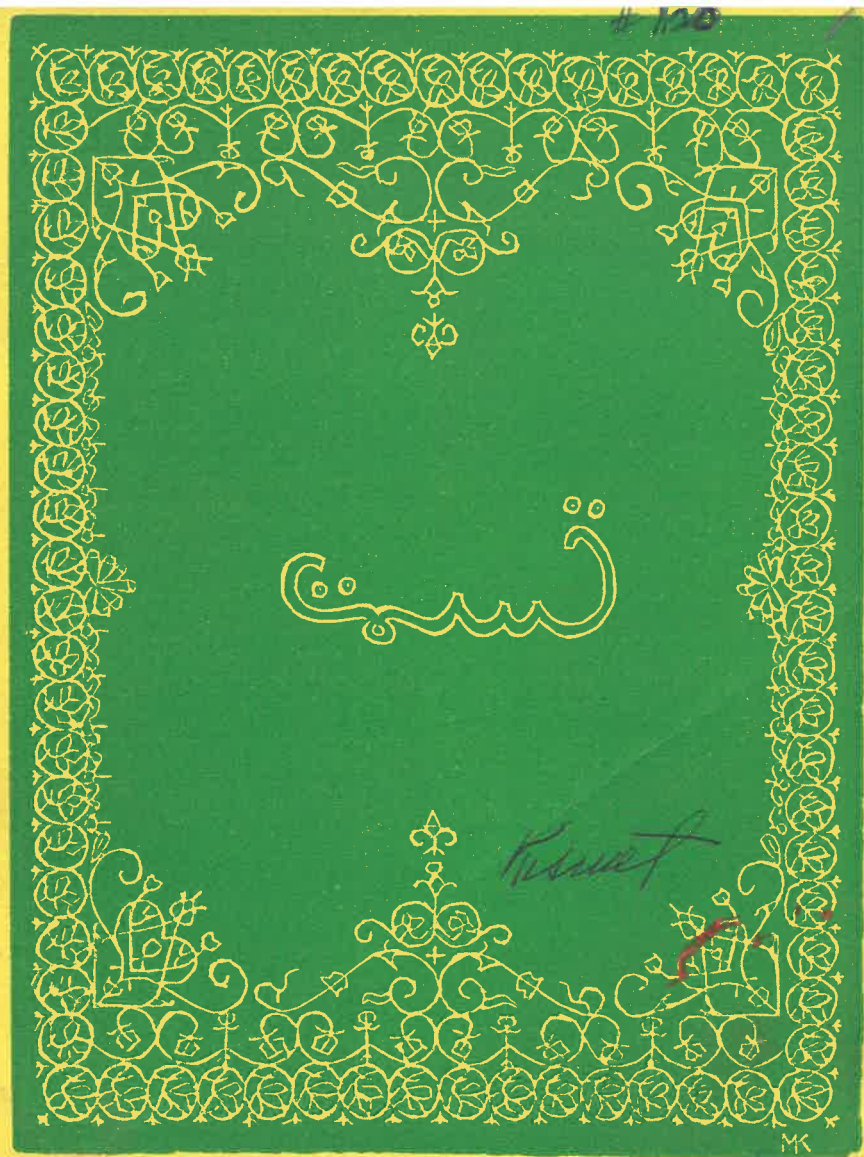

Beginning September 14, the Radio Work Shop will, again, be on the air every Monday at 8:00 p. m. over station KMO. Tryouts will be at 8:30 p. m. each Monday

PRAISE be to Allah, the King of all Kings, the Creator of all things! Who like to a carpet hath spread the Earth to our tread. And even as a tent, set up the firmament, overhead. And on Mohammed, his Prophet among men, the blessings of blessings again and again, Amen. But afterwards. Verily the works and words of those gone before us have become examples and admonitions to the men of our later day. And of such a kind is the story of Hajj, the beggar, who lived his life in this our peaceful city of Baghdad, one thousand and one years ago. Now it is the tale of his day of the days that I will relate unto you, O auspicious listeners. Do ye take heed therein of the lesson taught by Fate, which the poets call Kismet. And mark the chances and changes of time foredoomed to mortal man, now lifting him high, now sinking him low, even as the bucket in the well. But Allah alone is all knowing.
