"WHO'S WHO"

DAISY BRYANT—No Introduction Necessary! Daisy has appeared in many T.L.T. plays, is a monologue reader, "pinch hits" on construction crews, has been Recording Secretary on the T.L.T. Board for two years; and, when Little Theater duties permit, is secretary to the District Attorney.

JEANNE REPP was introduced to T.L.T. audiences in the double role of "Reba" and "Mary of Magdala" in "Family Portrait". It's small wonder, of course, that we should like her so well in "Personal Appearance" as she had a professional tour in this play on the East coast.

PATRICIA RICKER again we welcome to our cast. You'll remember "Patty" as "the maid" in "Private Lives". We are lucky to have her back again at T.L.T.

ROBERT HEATH returned to Tacoma after serving in the U. S. Army, spent a few hours at home, enrolled at C. P. S., then came to the T.L.T., and we're mighty glad to have him. Bob was recently interviewed by a Hollywood talent scout, and rumor has it that he received some very favorable comments.

CONSTANCE TAYLOR made her debut at T.L.T. as "Naomi" in the last show. Her "two loves" are her seven-months old son, Clark, and the Tacoma Little Theater.

BILL DURAND is the only T.L.T. actor who can drive an automobile from Tacoma to Los Angeles in 24-hours. Primarily a tennis champion. No doubt with his versatility and genuine interest in the theater we'll be seeing lots more of Bill, and glad we are.

DR. MAL MACDONALD—Since the production of "Family Portrait", in which Mal played the role of "Joseph", he has been in the eye of Little Theater scouts; and, before he knew it, was appointed Scenic Decorating Chairman on the Board of Directors for the 1946-1947 Season.

NEIL SKELTON got off to an auspicious start in his acting career by playing the role of "Mathias" in the previous show; and, when he appeared for try outs for "Personal Appearance", just naturally walked away with the role of "Johnson".

MILDRED SEATON is making her first appearance at T.L.T., but she says she hopes it isn't the last, and we heartily agree with her.

GERDA CALIGURI—A welcome newcomer to T.L.T.; and a sincere, conscientious artiste. Gerda's professional work has been in radio, but she says "I love the stage", and we predict for her a successful career.
