TONIGHT'S PLAY

Authors: John Murray
Allen Boretz

Director: Ben Small

The story of ROOM SERVICE is laid in Gordon Miller's room in the White Way Hotel. The principal character is a nimble-witted producer, living on credit with several actors in the hotel, and is desperately in need of a good script. He finds one, and, by good luck, he also finds an angel with $15,000. The play shows how, during a hectic few days, the producer plays hide-and-seek with the angel who wants to withdraw his financial support, manages to outwit creditors, and at the very last moment puts over his play in spite of the most ludicrous and unexpected obstacles.

BEHIND THE FOOTLIGHTS

By Julian Berner

MILLER is played by ROGER PUGH, new to T.L.T., hailing from Virginia, suh, an ex-Navy man, and the proud father of two handsome lads.

SASHA is played by DON LUCAS, period.

GRIBBLE is played by CLINT TAYLOR, now stationed at McChord Field; Little Theater experience with New River College Players, Montgomery, W. Va., and the Akron (O.) Little Theater. First show with us.

✓ CHRISTINE is portrayed by GLORIA KRISTOFFERSON, a charming alum of more than six productions with T.L.T. Don't miss her songs a la Hildegard during intermission.

BINION will be done by NEIL SKELTON, remembered for his good work in "Personal Appearance" and "Family Portrait"; at one time a professional musician.

✓ 1945 WAGNER is done by JIM GRIFFITH. Remember his roaring job in the "Male Animal"? There were one or two other bits done by Jim, whose histrionic growth almost parallels that of T.L.T.

✓ DAVIS is played by CLIFF HOLLENBECK, who cut his teeth under Mack Sennett's direction. (No kidding). Now associated with Ray Ridge. First show with T.L.T.
