"DATE WITH JUDY"

Adapted from one of the most popular radio programs, opens at TLT Wednesday, May 17—IF YOU WANT A SEAT, YOU'LL HAVE TO PHONE EARLY FOR YOUR RESERVATIONS.

STORY: Judy is determined to beat the slacks off Tootsie Whiteman by soliciting contributions to the Community Relief Fund—the winner to be queen and lead the grand march at the school dance. Soliciting is too slow, however, and she enters a whole raft of contests, as a means of raising some quick money—using her parents' names. The results are disastrous: father wins honorable mention in a nation-wide contest for the most 'kissable lips'. But Judy is not one to give up easily. She tries her hand at writing and concocts a "true confession" story entitled "I Am a Bigamist". Unfortunately, the 'true confession' script gets mixed up with Mrs. Foster's speech to the P.-T. A., and when she is unable to give the speech herself, it is read for her. Judy, meanwhile, has been trying to interest a theatrical producer in giving her and Mitzi jobs as actresses. They even do a scene from a high school spring play for the astonished producer. In the midst of their act, Mrs. Schultzhammer sweeps in, waving the "confession manuscript" and demanding that Mrs. Foster resign from the P.-T. A. They'll have no bigamist in their organization! On top of this, Oogie barges in and tells Judy he's tired waiting for her to make up her mind. He's accepted Tootsie Whiteman's invitation to the dance. Judy practically dissolves in tears. Life has reached tragic proportions for Judy—but before the evening is over she almost makes a new conquest, is mixed up in a near-elopement—and, finally, in a last minute mad rush, goes to the dance with Oogie—and, believe it or not, she is crowned Queen, too, in place of Tootsie!

MEET THE PLAYERS

Louis K. Woodford, Sr.

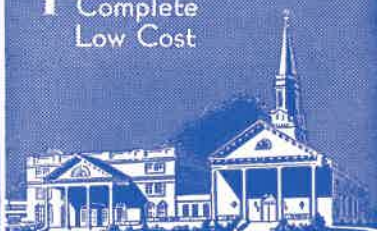

CLINT TAYLOR is doing his third major role in a TLT production. Was last seen as "Charlie", one of those zany dopsters in Three Men On a Horse. Radar is his vocation, TLT his hobby.

MOLLY JO FINNIGAN returns to the fold after an absence of many years. Ye scribe recalls about 1940 she was rustling props in the Old Town location, then in 1941-42 she was prexy of the organization and left us in 1943. But recently returned from points in Europe, Africa and other far-away places.

VICTOR PARBER is comparatively new to Tacoma but not to the show business. Studied with Tamara Daykarhanaova in the big town; appeared on Broadway in "A Story for Strangers" and did the lead in "June Moon" opposite Shirley Booth. Has worked extensively in radio. His first appearance on TLT stage was as the Rev. Dr. Lloyd in "Life With Father".

MARIETA LOREN has worked in many plays produced by TLT. Last role was "Aunt Sigrid" in "I Remember Mama". She is a soloist at Mason M. E. Church; had taught "Children's Theatre" classes. Her hobby—flower arrangements.

MARION SEYMOUR needs no introduction. She is part and parcel of TLT; has held down about every spot in the organization at one time or another. Is Chairman of the Make-Up and Records Committee, also TLT historian and librarian. Did "Milly Moon" in "Chicken", and "Nelly Fell" in the Torchbearers.

JAMES CARROLL comes from San Diego where he attended San Diego State College. Is now attending C.P.S., majoring in history. Had some stage experience in S.D. but this is his first appearance at TLT. Says he likes it very much.

DOREEN HOPPER is another gal that needs no introduction to Tacoma audiences. She has been seen in various roles on the stage of TLT, has directed plays and loves the theatre. Was on the professional stage before she married and became domestic. Still plays a mean game of golf and is active in civic affairs, particularly the Grey Ladies.

CHARLOTTE DAVIS not too long a resident of Tacoma; the wife of The Rev. Howard E. Davis and teaching at Annie Wright Seminary. Comes from Philadelphia where was a member of the Chestnut Hill Stagecrafters and St. Luke's Players Guild.

NADINE GJERTSEN a drama major from Washington State College where she has a long list of parts to her credit. You remember her as "Susie", the gal who got met, in "Boy Meets Girl". She loves the theatre.

JOE L. DURNIN had a season membership. He used it all up and says that in order to see this show for free he had to get in the cast. This is his first attempt in this sort of thing and he says "by gosh, I think I like it".

KENNETH GOULD last seen in "I Remember Mama" as Mr. Thorkelson, the friendly undertaker and Aunt Trinia's sweetie. Been doing parts since grade-school days. Likes it.

JOHN FLETCHER (Kitty's husband). She said she'd get him into a play and here he is. His first offense. Commutes daily from Olympia where he is with Statewide City Employees Retirement system.

STEPHEN BRIGHTMAN, a Mass. Agri. student; here from New Bedford, Mass., and this is his first TLT appearance.

CALVIN GLENN works for Washington Hardware. Also a first for him with TLT.

LAURA ST. JOHN says this is her first offense. She is the daughter of Al. St. John who has done a lot of work backstage at our theatre. She likes it; just sort of inherited.

GLENNIE WOODCOCK, the wife of Dr. R. S. Woodcock (dentist) and her first appearance with TLT altho did some work in High School down Salem way.

JEAN BAKER couldn't be contacted prior to my deadline. (I tried); so the Fates decree she must go unsung in this issue. So sorry.

VIRGIL GROFF needs no introduction to Tacoma audiences. Was an ardent worker with the Lakewood Players but when he moved into the city he cast his lot with TLT. Last appeared in "Boy Meets Girl" and also mixed a mean drink in "Three Men On a Horse". Recommends carrot juice for what ails you.

DAISY BRYANT, 'nuff ced. There isn't room in the program to tell all we know about Daisy. She keeps the dressing rooms and back-stage ship shape and when time hangs heavy she takes a part. Among her souvenirs are "The Women", Blithe Spirit, "Personal Appearance" and many more too numerous to mention.

LEONARD HOLDEN in Tacoma 3 years. A U. of Minn. grad, now teaching at Jason Lee. Remember the "buck-tooth" lad in "Chicken Every Sunday?" That was Leonard.

LOUIS K. WOODFORD II—takes a back seat to Louis K. III who arrived in Tacoma, March 15. Did a strong, silent type in "Angel Street" as one of the "bobbies" and drove the horse-car as "Clem" in Chicken Every Sunday. Theatre must be in his blood, he runs a theatre ticket press for the Globe Ticket Co.

KITTY FLETCHER, what a gal. She paints, leads a girl scout group, mows the lawn, makes the garden grow and when she has nothing else to do, takes a role in a TLT production. Sh-h-h! She even dragged her husband into this one. She was the gal afflicted with lymphomania in Chicken Every Sunday. Remember?

DALE NELSON made his first appearance in "Heaven Can Wait" in the 1945-6 season and then aspired to be a Presidential candidate in "State of the Union". Is finishing at C.P.S. and has a yen to teach dramatics.

GALVIN HOPPER is making his second appearance on our stage. Made his debut as "Roberts" in "Thru the Night". Shoots a mean game of golf (or did) and has made himself generally useful about TLT for many moons.

KIRK PEERBOON makes his first appearance on our stage. Is a student at Pacific Lutheran and has taken part in several college plays. Is majoring in speech and his immediate objective is to teach dramatics in High School.
