WHO'S WHO

—by Burke Ormsby—

BOB WOLF (Beef Saunders)—Bob is a real college man for a college play. He's a graduate student now at CPS—has taken two years of voice with Ivan Rasmussen, is a member of Adelphian Concert Choir and has appeared in 6 shows at the college.

LEN HOLTON (Bobby Randall)—Len is another CPS contribution to the cast. He's a veteran trouper at an early age, having appeared in both CPS and Theater Guild plays, taking the romantic lead in "You Can't Take It With You" at the Guild. Len has 4 years voice training and belongs to the Adelphian Concert Choir.

ART ACKERMAN (Bill Johnson)—"Our coach" can be remembered for his fine performance in "John Loves Mary" here. Art was a Portland import and a welcome one—did considerable work with the Portland Civic Theatre.

GENE JOHNSON (Tom Marlowe)—Our college football hero is really a high school senior with a real interest in voice study. You'll see why when you hear him sing. Gene has studied three year with Frank Nurdning and has appeared in two Stadium operettas, playing the lead in "Desert Song".

PATTY REESE (Constance Lane)—Patty is also a Stadium product, although graduated now. She played the romantic lead in "Robin Hood" and has studied voice with Ivan Rasmussen at CPS. This is Patty's first role at TLT. Maybe we'll see more of her.

CALLEEN MCKAY (Patricia Bingham)—Calleen is another newcomer to the TLT stage. (In fact you'll discover a lot of fresh new faces in "Good News". It's one of those odd coincidences of the stage that Calleen plays a girl named Pat while Pat Reese plays a girl named Connie. Calleen has done stage and music work in both high school and college. Don't let that collegiate look fool you. She's happily married.

CATHERINE McDONALD (Babe O'Day)—One of the top comedy roles in "Good News" goes to a girl that's no stranger to TLT audiences. You'll remember Katy's specialty numbers in "Love Rides the Rails" and her part as the young bride in "The Heiress" Katy is teaching dancing now in Tacoma after a summer with the Park Board here. Incidentally, Katy is mighty slick on that slick stuff they call ice and likes competitive figure skating as a hobby.

MARJIE JOY MILLER (Flo)—Marjie is another veteran of Little Theatre productions—if you can call any cute trick of 20 years a veteran. For all her young years, Marjie has a real background of drama and music. She was a drama and radio major at Stephens College and appeared in some important plays there. She sang with the spectacular young band of Elliott Lawrence, and has sung with bands here. She's teaching dance and drama now with Lewis Harter.

GEORGE "Rabbit" MAININGER (Pooch Kearney)—George says: "If you don't mind, I like to use that name "Rabbit". It's George's stage name and the one he has used in night club acts where he has worked as an entertainer and m.c. He's a newcomer to TLT, but we think you'll see that professional touch in his comedy part. In addition to his night club work, George directed shows in the Army.

MARGARET ZAFERIN (Millie)—Another Stadium recruit. Studied voice for two years with Mrs. Ruth Hubley and sings now with St. Patrick's Choir. Margaret is graduated now, but appeared in "Robin Hood" at Stadium.

JIM MOELLER (Sylvester)—Again, our thanks to Stadium. Seems like we only have about one Lincolnite (Len Holton) in the cast. Jim is active in the Stadium Thespian Club and the Concert Chorus. He's a junior.

DAVE WESTALL (Windy)—Dave is a recruit from the Guild, where he played in "Guest in the House", "You Can't Take It With You" and "Petticoat Fever". This is his first TLT appearance.

JACK CONVERY (Professor Kenyon)—Jack lists under stage experience "some high school". And as hobbies: "baseball and fishing". But we say welcome to the TLT stage. For a sports lover, Jack gives a convincing portrayal of the fussy astronomy professor who almost ruins the big game.

HUGH TRIFFET (Slats)—Did we say something about Stadium? Well, that's where Hugh hails from—originally, although he's now studying radio announcing and engineering at Tacoma Vocational. Took the comedy lead in "Dear Ruth" at Stadium—so appropriately enough, he plays a comedy part in "Good News".
