OF
TACOMA LITTLE THEATRE

Builders of the Future

BY SALEM NOURSE

Patron Memberships afford the opportunity for civic-minded citizens to contribute to the support and future development of the theatre in the form of tax-deductible donations. Such contributions are deposited with the Building Trusteeship (Civic Drama School) to be used for permanent building improvements, such as additional rehearsal hall and workshop space, Children's Theatre, Green Room, Arena Theatre, etc.

Plans are now under study and preparation for enlarged facilities for our present building, and the two adjacent lots to the north, which we own. These plans may lead to the construction of one of the finest Little Theatre plants in the entire country. A growing list of patrons, for which the following names are a nucleus, will assure the early fruition of these plans.

Your inquiries regarding details of this program, and how you may participate with tax benefit, will be appreciated.

WHO'S WHO

By Cecyl Murphy

Shen Ling (Ling) is a student at Lincoln Hi, a native Tacoman, whose parents came from Cheking, China. He is one of a family of ten. We welcome his first appearance at TLT.

Louis K. Woodford (Senator Cromwell) is our candidate for Mr. TLT. Woody's name is justly celebrated at Tacoma Little Theatre where he has given fine performances in many shows. He is "Good Humor Man" on the Board of Directors which benefits from his wide experience in things theatrical. And what's more, he is Chancellor of the Exchequer.

Peg Nourse (Julia Cromwell) is Chairman of stage managers this year. She has appeared in at least ten shows for TLT, always with distinction and charm. Her debut was in the Old Town Theater, playing opposite our present Senator from Washington, Harry Cain. Just now Peg is directing daughter Judy's Scout troop in a play at Annie Wright Seminary.

Ethel Weeks (Beulah) says that her hobby is TLT and here's the proof: Ethel helped with five out of eight TLT shows last year, working as book-holder, with props, costumes, ushers, check-room and had a small part in "Harvey." No lazy-bones is Ethel!

Gertrude Scholl (Addie Hampton) tells a "rags to riches" story of her casting in this show. While engaged in a dishwashing job on the Theater crockery, she was grabbed for the part of Addie. She says she's enjoying the part and that it's a change from her daily work as secretary to the Deputy State Director of Selective Service.

Betty Jayne McGuigan (Lillian Hampton) is new in Tacoma, a senior at Aquinas. Had lead in senior play at Notre Dame high school in Belmont, California. Loves music and collects records.

Bryan Drahold (Nicky Hampton) is in the seventh grade at Mason. Interested in stamp collecting, basketball and played on 1951 Junior Hi championship baseball team. Favorite sport, wrestling. Son of the Otto Draholds.

Flo Dorsey (Mrs. Gimble) is Refreshment Chairman this year. Says she's "soda jerk and coffee perk." First show for TLT, hasn't acted for years. Has full time job in leisure time refinishes furniture, makes rugs, paints, papers and gardens. Has husband, Fred, a lawyer, and two grown sons.

Helene St. Johns (Mrs. Worley) is another first on TLT stage, although she has worked on costumes for two former shows and is also doing costumes for this one. Has daughter, Laura, sophomore at Washington State and son, Louis, who was one of the boys in "Life With Father." Interested in youth groups, is helping at present with both Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts.

Don Hazel (Gifford Hampton) will be remembered as the Reverend Watson in "Silver Whistle." Graduate of CPS with music degree, he is an experienced singer and musical director. Daytime occupation, storekeeper at Winthrop Hotel.

Jim Moeller (Vincent Pemberton) was in TLT's production "Good News" last year. Jim is a senior at Stadium Hi where he sings in the Concert Chorus, has had parts in the opera and senior class play and is also president of the Thespians.

Raymond Taylor (Matthew Cromwell) worked for radio station WGN, Chicago, before coming to Tacoma recently. He has appeared in radio plays and in plays at Texas Western College, University of Southern California and El Paso Little Theater. After army service he was with Columbia Concerts for five years. TLT is happy to have this talented newcomer.

Gloria Swanberg (Clarissa) got her part by accident she says, just came to try-outs with a friend. Has attended CPS while also employed full time. Works at new K Street Central Bank Branch. Hobbies: Reading and enjoyment of music, especially operas and symphonies. Gloria wishes that she had at least one laugh line in this play.

Beverly Hunter (Mrs. Tillie Sparker). You'll remember her as Ellen in "Good Bye My Fancy." Works at Fort Lewis in dental clinic and lab. Bev loves outdoor sports, especially skiing and skating. She's the gregarious type and likes working with people. We are sure it's mutual.

John Weston (Mayor Tibbet). Look for his name on pictures in Tacoma News Tribune. John is a staff photographer for that paper. Although he helped with make-up for plays at Montana State U, this is his first stage appearance. He "clicked" at first try-out.

Marion Peronto (Birdie) hasn't been in a show since grade school days at Holy Rosary.

She's also doubling as chairman of props for this show, which is no mean task. Marion has two children, a daughter, Gail, and son, Jimmy.

Margaret Zaferin (Zita) provides us with all those pretty ushers and check-room girls. Margaret appeared in "Good Bye My Fancy" and "Good News" and was also in Stadium senior play and opera. Loves music, is on TLT board and works at Mt. Rainier Ordnance Depot.

Cherie Milos (Opal) having had experience in plays at Fife Hi this is Cherie's first role in a play at TLT, where new talent is always welcome. Daytimes she is employed at Barry Frocks.

NEXT PLAY
"COMMAND DECISION"

(Next production opens March 20)

This tremendously effective and deeply moving drama opened on Broadway in 1947. It is a wide-open, four-engined, hard-hitting job, which ranks in its impact with two memorable dramas of World War I: "What Price Glory?" and "Journey's End."

The play shows how a high-ranking officer in charge of an airplane division meets his agonizing problems of bombing certain European areas in order to get the most effective results rather than to please high-ranking government officers, some of whom place politics above practical results. This terrific drama is written with the utmost realism, which, of course, includes a vast amount of legitimate comedy, together with dramatic suspense of a very high order.
