WHO'S WHO

(PROGRAM NOTES BY DOROTHY D. KAHLER)

Billie Dawn (Roxenne Bjelland)—Those of us who saw "Dinner at Eight" knew there would be a starring vehicle before long for "Kitty", and this is it. Roxenne lives at Lakewood among nice friends of TLT who take over with lines and baby sitting where husband leaves off. We hear she plays a good solid game of golf.

Harry Brock (Bob Rudsit)—Bob came to the Northwest from Philadelphia during World War II, took a wife, and decided to stay. At CPS he majored in fine arts, and still dabbles in painting and sculpture. He's a photographer for the News-Tribune and teaches two nights a week at the Ft. Lewis Hobby House. Previous shows: "Detective Story," "Mr. Roberts," "Suds in Your Eye."

Paul Verrall (Vernon Pearson)—Born and raised in North Dakota, Vern did his undergraduate work at Jamestown College and went on the road one summer with "Prairie Players." Before coming to Tacoma two years ago, he taught law at the University of Washington. The star of "Mr. Roberts" and "Detective Story," and member of the law firm of Pearson, Anderson & Pearson (Central Bank Building) is a really swell guy to work with!

Ed Devery (Ted Knightlinger)—Ted is a veteran of many TLT productions: "Harvey," "Affairs of State," "Fancy Meeting You Again," "Dodsworth," "Command Decision," and others. He is an account executive at Howard R. Smith Co. (advertising agency) and first vice president of TLT.

Senator Norval Hedges (Bob Evans)—Bob needs no introduction to Tacoma Dramatic circles. He is Director of TLT's Children's Theatre (incidentally, registration is Sept. 25), and in charge of the Dramatic Department at Stadium High School. After a month's vacation this summer at the Yellowstone Park, he's now ready for 14 hours per day until next summer.

Mrs. Hedges (Lois Scholl)—The name Lois Scholl has earned a place on TLT programs for many years, in properties and in acknowledgment of the use of her furs; now, for the first time, we see her as a member of the cast in what we hope is the forerunner of many appearances before the footlights.

Eddie Brock (Gene Skidmore)—When Gene says the theatre is his hobby, that's the understatement of the year! Doing the lighting on seven shows last season, and having roles in six, sounds more like a full-time job. And there are three little Skidmores at home who can hardly wait to get into the act with Dad.

The Assistant Manager (Jim Hoffner)—Poor Jim! Ever since he painted "All the World Is a Stage" on our facade he's been catching it from folks who don't understand a sign painter's problems. A TLT board member, Jim also works backstage on construction, and you saw him in "Detective Story" and "Dinner at Eight" (in which the Hoffner's dog Penny appeared).

Helen (Beverly Hunter)—Bev was in the cast of "Goodbye My Fancy" and "Strange Bedfellows" while attending CPS. This past year was a strenuous one for her, taking a theatre course at Northwestern University, from which she returned in June, a basket case. She's looking forward to the winter sports to be enjoyed in the Northwest.

A Barber (Ed Heller)—We needed a barber, so we called Local 158 and they sent us the new owner of the Winthrop Barber Shop. We welcome Ed and his wife and two children who came to Tacoma from Maryland about six months ago.

A Manicurist (Rilla Barnes)—In addition to being a backstage worker for many years, Rilla belongs to that backbone of TLT, the ticket sales group, and has already earned her 20-membership dinner. The owner of Rosehaven Beauty Shop, on North 11th and Tacoma Avenue, is doing what comes naturally in this role, her first on our stage.

A Bootblack (Gary Zimmerman)—Gary is a junior at Lincoln, and this is his first play. He submits to such subjects as geometry and algebra, but art is his dish. At the cast party we hope to hear Gary on his Hawaiian guitar.
