WHO'S WHO

By DORIS BUSBY

Welcome to Venice . . . and to the cast who will make it come alive for you. Headlining your tour to this romantic land is . . .

HELEN CHAPMAN (Leona Samish). Helen has charmed many audiences here at the Little Theatre, her latest roles being in "Dinner at Eight," "Dodsworth," and "The Two Mrs. Carrolls." Besides the theatre, Helen's hobbies include the care of cats and enjoying life at the beach. Next meet . . .

GERDA CALIGURI (Fioria). It's been too long since Gerda has been seen here at the Little Theatre, her last roles being in "First Lady" and "Personal Appearance." Welcome back, Gerda! And a warm welcome too, to . . .

BILL O'CONNELL (Eddie Yaeger). Bill hasn't been on the boards here since "Detective Story," but that doesn't mean that Bill has been inactive. He's had many parts with the Theatre Guild, besides being very busy as athletic coach at Woodlawn Grade School in Puyallup. By the way, Bill majored in art at high school, so he has training for this part. Playing Bill's stage wife is . . .

CLAIRE HOFFNER (June Yaeger). Claire is really a versatile little gal, being both an accomplished singer and a talented thespian. Audiences thrilled to Claire's singing in "The Merry Widow," besides enjoying her fine portrayals in "Dinner at Eight" and "Aaron Slick of Punkin Crick." Another person in the cast who qualifies as both singer and actor is . . .

DON LEMON (Mr. McIlhenny). Remember Don as the lovable Herr Franz in "The Firefly"? This is Don's first dramatic role at TLT, but he has been active with the Lakewood Players. Don has been a very industrious guy these last few months building his home. We're very glad he had time during these rainy months to devote some of his time to the Little Theatre. Another very busy cast member is . . .

WALLY SCOTT (Di Rossi). Last seen here this fall in "The Little Foxes," Wally's comment on this role is that he feels that he has grown from a small, sly fox into a full-grown wolf! Our comment is that it takes a pretty talented man to portray a dyed-in-the-wool southerner in the fall and an Italian shopkeeper in the winter! Who can tell what the spring may bring? Of course there's one person that knows and that's Wally's son in this show . . .

TERRY JONES (Vito). Terry's plans for this spring include studies at the College of Puget Sound where he intends to become a drama major. "You Can't Take It With You" plus "Mr. Roberts" have boasted Terry's talents and with his college work keeping him here in Tacoma, we hope that this is just the beginning. Talking about beginnings . . . let's talk a bit about . . .

LARRY HEGGERNESS (Marrio). Larry is certainly not a beginner at the Little Theatre, having appeared in our productions of "Chicken Every Sunday" and "Mr. Belvedere." A Junior at Stadium High School, Larry hopes some day to be either a ranger or a teacher. The only thing that worries him is the pay. One cast member who is aiming at a high paying profession is . . .

SUSAN BAILEY (Giovanna). Susan hopes one day to become a professional model, and it looks as if she has the necessary requirements! Susan also hopes to go on the stage, and although this is her first appearance at TLT, she has done work at Lincoln High School, having played in both "Song of Norway" and "Blossom Time." Completing the cast is an audience favorite . . .

MARIETA LOREN (Mrs. McIlhenny). Marieta has contributed her talents to many of our productions . . . "Dodsworth," "I Remember Mama," "Beggar on Horseback" and "State of the Union," to name a few. An art addict, Marieta has two ambitions . . . to really go to Italy . . . and to play in another fantasy. Good luck, Marieta!

We hope you'll enjoy your tour to Venice, by way of "Time of the Cuckoo" . . . and as a final note . . . not one member of the cast has ever been to Italy! . . . not one of them can boast any Italian descendants! . . . A round of applause to cast, director and the Tacoma Little Theatre!

"SABRINA FAIR"

By SAMUEL TAYLOR

This romantic comedy was one of the recent hits on Broadway with Margaret Sullivan and Joseph Cotton as stars.

There are 7 men and 7 women in the cast.

Atkinson, in the New York Times, said: "The story is a modern version of the Cinderella fable. Sabrina is the daughter of the family chauffeur for the Larrabees who are staggeringly rich and impeccably genteel. Fearfully brilliant and educated, she comes home from five years in Paris, where she has done a stunning job in a United States overseas branch."

Hawkins, in the New York Telegram, said: "Thoroughly entertaining—most engaging."

McClain, in the New York Journal-American, writes: "These are gay and gentle people—and they are immensely amusing most of the time."

Tacoma Little Theatre says: "Make your reservations EARLY. This will be a popular show."

"SABRINA FAIR" opens MARCH 2.
