WHO'S WHO

By DOREEN HOPPER

MAXINE MANDLES (Margo) hasn't been in a major play since "State of the Union," far too long for one of our most talented actresses. However, there has been no neglect of TLT on Maxine's part, as she has served on the Board, on Play Reading, as Hostess Chairman and Social Hour Chairman. But with her background of University of Washington Drama School, plus acting ability, plus pulchritude, we'd rather see her on stage.

JOHN GAYTON (Tony) is the only Englishman in this English play. We acquired him via Vancouver, B. C., which Canadian Little Theatre center probably doesn't realize it's loss, since TLT is John's first theatre experience. He has been seen in "Sabrina," "Caine Mutiny Trial," and "Kind Sir."

JOHN BRYANT (Inspector Hubbard) was last seen in "Dinner at Eight" on our stage—has played several fine roles for the Lakewood Players. Good to have you back!

VERNON PEARSON (Max) is another of our fine actors who have been selected for this difficult Suspense play. He will be well remembered for "Detective Story," "Mr. Roberts" and "Born Yesterday." A member of the law firm of Pearson, Anderson & Pearson.

ALVIN ANDERSON (Capt. Lesgate)—remember "See How They Run," "First Lady," and "My Three Angels"? He is another member of Pearson, Anderson & Pearson. We understand there is another Pearson who has yet to be tapped for TLT, and also a new Anderson has been added to the firm. All able men on stage!

PLAYS

Theatre people have their "likes" and "dislikes" for this play or that play.

Why don't YOU be of assistance to the Play Reading Committee. The committee that will suggest the 1957-58 slate of plays is now meeting. Between now and next June they probably will read 40 different plays. They would welcome your suggestion as to the plays that you have enjoyed most at the Tacoma Little Theatre. Also, mention the ones that you have not enjoyed.

Comments:

N.Y. World-Telegram and Sun:

"Extremely funny"

N.Y. Post:

"Suspense, as to how everything is going to turn out."

N.Y. News:

"a skillfully contrived and very enjoyable farce. It has enough funny situations, and something even better—humor."

Have you ever been back stage?

Time was, when after every performance, a lot of you fine people used to go back stage to meet the actors and actresses . . . and generally see "what makes it tick."

Really, it's an interesting trip and one that you'd enjoy. Tell you what: After tonight's performance, go down front, turn left through the curtains and go backstage, tell 'em what a good show it was and how you and your friends enjoyed the performance.

While you're doing that, you'll also be able to see the backstage facilities . . . and better understand why we need more money support for more improvements . . . all of which will equal even better productions in the years to come.

You'll readily see where dollars can be spent to better your TLT and then, while you're in the mood . . . strike a blow for a growing, bigger, better Theatre . . . become a patron of the building fund. Add your name to the list of wonderful people here whose donations are helping the Theatre grow . . . and grow . . . and grow . . . You'll be glad you did.
