SYNOPSIS OF SCENES

The action of the play takes place in the drawing room of the Middleton's house on Sutton Place—one of New York's most fashionable and exclusive districts. These old houses (charming three-story buildings), though they have been modernized inside, still retain the graciousness of another day with their quaint entrance doors and leaded front windows and the lovely back gardens fronting the East River. In fact they are a famous landmark in New York, and were once a part of the fabulous Phipps estate.

WHO'S WHO

By ANNE RADEMAKER

GRACE GARLAND (Mrs. Culver) has appeared in many, many Little Theatre productions, including, in recent years, "Two Blind Mice," "Suds in Your Eye" and "The King of Hearts." She probably knows every phase of play production work, for Grace has long been one of TLT's most willing and able workers. She has served on the board, and as president of TLT.

WEBB CARR (Bentley) has recently been seen in "Caine Mutiny Court Martial" and "The Philadelphia Story." He is another of the "backstage heroes" of TLT, having served as Stage Manager, and having done various kinds of construction work. He works for the Federal Housing Administration.

MARY ORMSBY (Martha Culver) has played important roles in "Dodsworth," "The Letter," "Dinner at Eight," "Harvey" and other TLT productions. She has directed several plays, including "Junior Miss" and "Ladies in Retirement." According to her husband, Burke, her hobbies are reading and Theatre.

BETTY BRITT CARR (Barbara Fawcett) has appeared in "You Can't Take It With You" and "Sabrina Fair." Keeping up with her husband, Webb, in serving TLT "above and beyond the call of duty" she often does the hair styles for our shows. She is owner-operator of the Chic Styling Salon at 27th and Proctor.

BETTY DAY (Constance Middleton) was first seen in a TLT production in "First Lady," but has appeared in "Born Yesterday" and "The Man Who Came to Dinner" for Lakewood Players. She is Scenic Painting chairman, production chairman for Children's Theatre, does play readings for groups, and lists among her hobbies painting and playing the Hammond organ . . . a hobby enjoyed by her husband, Judd.

DORIS BUSBY (Marie Louise Durham) played in "I Remember Mama," "Detective Story," "Dinner at Eight" and "Sabrina Fair." She directed "Caine Mutiny Court Martial," and has been assistant director on many productions. She's served in the Play Selections Committee for several years. She and her husband, Francis, list TLT as their hobby.

HORACE GEER (John Middleton) was seen in "Detective Story," "Dinner at Eight," "Three Men on a Horse," "Caine Mutiny" and (his favorite role) was the Captain in "Mr. Roberts." He is an attorney, and his hobbies include gardening, golf and a workshop in which he makes furniture.

ELEANOR GEER (Anna) has appeared in only one other TLT production, "Three Men on a Horse," but is a loyal backstage worker, having served on "Properties" and "Costumes" Committees for many productions. She enjoys the hobbies of golf and gardening with her husband, Horace.

JOHN GAYTON (Bernard Kersal), after his performance as Captain Fisby in "The Teahouse of the August Moon," planned to concentrate on backstage work for this production, when, at Director Dick Odlin's request, President Kaye Ewart prevailed upon him, at almost the last minute, to fill in and accept a stage role. John has appeared in many TLT productions, including "Dial M for Murder," "Caine Mutiny," "Sabrina" and "Kind Sir."

SALEM NOURSE (Mortimer Durham) said, when asked, that of all the many leading roles he's played for TLT audiences, his favorite was in "Life With Father," closely followed by "The Heiress" and "Dodsworth." He's also appeared in "Three Angels" and recently in "The Ponder Heart." Salem is chairman of the Civic Drama School Committee. He is in the investment business. Little Theatre is his hobby in winter, the Tennis Club, in summer. He, too, was asked to fill in and play this part at almost the last minute.

The Constant Reminder . . . .

Even though we near the end of another successful season, we still keep reminding our patrons of the need of donor patrons to make next year even bigger and better. Under the regime of our capable and energetic new president and his board we know that great things lie ahead. You can be a part of the progress of your Tacoma Little Theatre by the simple method of affixing your signature to a donor check and adding your personal support to our building fund. Thanks!
