WHO'S WHO

By GENE DRYDEN

RENO W. ODLIN (1st Beard) The younger of the 2 young Reno Odlin's (the other one is a banker). After playing parts of convict and Indian last year, he considers this role as The Saviour as a definite move upward.

NORMAN BRADLEY (O'Malley) One of Tacoma's outstanding attorneys, with T.L.T. in this play (legal talk meaning he's one of two local lawyers in the cast). "Dinner at Eight" was his first performance here or anywhere. "Three Men on a Horse" his only other. Considers Little Theater a civic duty, but enjoyable. We find Norm enjoyable, too.

ARLENE LEDDY (Sadie) This is Arlene's 6th play. Her favorite was "Detective Story," and "Goodbye My Fancy" a close second. She's been on stage and backstage for 7 years . . . it's her hobby. Arlene's a perfect Leddy, too.

UWARDA DAY (Lily Garland) This mighty mite has a terrific background . . . professional dancing in New York (with famed Hanya Holm's group); teaching at Annie Wright Seminary, preceded by professional scholarship to Cornish School, U. of W. Drama, and on and on. She's impressed us here in "Kind Sir," "Fancy Meeting You Again," and others. Husband: Hollis. Children: 3. T.L.T. Board Member. Mother never told me there'd be days like this!

HAL MURLAND (George Smith) One of two great legal minds in this cast. Hal branches out into singing, and has been a Board member (and V.P.) of T.L.T. Was in "The Firefly" in '54. Also famous as lucky husband of Helen Murland.

DIANE PETERSON (Anita) This attractive teen-ager is a drama student under Maurice Hendrickson at Puyallup High School. Also in music activities there. This is Diane's first appearance here, but drama is her goal as a career . . . will major in TV at U. of W. Active in school programs on Radio KAYE, Puyallup. Welcome, Diane!

LES HOUDE (Oscar Jaffe) Houde rhymes with "good" and well it should. Fine background in drama: U. of W. and W.S.C. drama groups. New York, Lakewood and Tacoma as a top-notch actor and director. Has shown here in "Two Orphans" and "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial." He's in Public Information Office at Fort Lewis. We're lucky to have talent of his calibre aboard, and we hope to see more of Les.

DR. MAL MACDONALD (Oliver Webb) The good doctor strolled in a few years ago to help paint a set, and, like the man who came to dinner, is on "about the 14th" stage performance. We like his style and manner . . . on or off stage. Last year Mal was in "Twin Beds" (the play, that is); the year before in "The Little Foxes." If you don't see eye to eye with him, his office (optometrist) is at So. 18th and Tacoma Avenue.

VIRGINIA WEEKS (Dr. Johnson) Now that husband Charles is a retired Admiral, vivacious Virginia is resuming on-stage activities. Previously with Peoria (Ill.) Players, Dancing and drama appealed to her in childhood. The Weeks have 3 lovely daughters, a family Tacoma is proud to claim. With a Day and a Week in the cast, we have the start of a great year.

CASEY JONES (Conductor) And here we always thought Casco Jones was an engineer! Anyway, a mighty man is he at T.L.T.: Construction Chairman of our theatre . . . and he's been in "Dinner At Eight," and "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial." St. Regis Paper Co. claims this courteous mild-mannered gent. So does wife Margaret, who is as much a part of T.L.T. as the stage.

DICK ODLIN (Matthew Clark) Where do you start . . . and where do you stop . . . with Dick Odlin? Director of T.L.T. shows, including this one, with amazing record in Pasadena Playhouse, New York stage, on tour, etc., etc. He's been with the best, and he is one of the best. Those incredible eyes always amaze us! We're might fortunate to have Dick Odlin in Tacoma (as if you didn't already know!)

CAROL LAVENDAR (Train Secretary) A newcomer to T.L.T., but a native of Tacoma. Carol won the second actress award in a high school theatrical contest held at Pacific Lutheran College. Welcome, Carol, to T.L.T.

We regret that the following were cast too late to be interviewed by the "Who's Who" writer: Bob Ward, Norton Gordon, Paul Benson, Roger Nelson, Waldo Stone, Larry Mortimer, Salem Nourse.

These are the times

To point with pride! View with alarm!! These are the times of the greatest, most precious heritage we hold. The times of free and open elections . . . the times of exercising a sacred right of the ballot.

Here at TLT, we've a "platform," too . . . one to which we can point with pride, because—as we embark on our 39th year—our platform is the same as always: "We pledge to continue to give to Tacomans the finest of amateur theater entertainment to be found . . . anywhere!"

Our "Platform" also includes a continuation of progress in enlarging and modernizing our Theater . . . and that's where you can cast your "vote" of approval. Your ballot . . . a tax deductible donation to the ever growing building fund of your TLT. TLT will grow for you . . . just as fast as the Building Fund grows to meet its needs.
