Who's Who

By MAGGIE JONES

GERRY HULTMAN (Gretchen) This is Gerry's third musical at TLT. She first appeared here in "Irene," and a year later as "Julie" in "Carousel." She has two children, is a teacher in the public schools, and is a member of the "Cleft Dwellers"

SHIRLEY GLEASON (Gretchen) Another busy and talented girl. This is her first appearance on stage. She is a native Tacoma girl, who up to now has been kept busy taking care of her three children and teaching organ and piano. We hope that she will find time for TLT again.

HARRY ALDRICH (Boris VanDamm) Harry is a favorite performer at TLT. He has appeared here in "The Firefly," "Song of Norway," "Carousel" and "Desert Song." He also is a member of the "Cleft Dwellers." We know that you will enjoy his wonderful voice.

MILTON THOMPSON (Boris VanDamm) Welcome back to TLT, Milt. We missed your personality and rich voice last year. Milt appeared in "The Firefly," "Song of Norway," "Irene" and "Carousel." He also played a non-singing role in our production of "Sabrina Fair."

PERSIS SHOOK (Bertha) You are all familiar by now with Persis' lovely voice. She has appeared in many of our musicals. Perhaps the most memorable role that she played was "Nettie" in "Carousel." She has three children, is a teacher in Tacoma public schools and is a member of the "Cleft Dwellers." She is also a soloist at Christ Episcopal Church.

JANICE GORRELL (Bertha) Janice is a newcomer to TLT, but not to Tacoma, as she was born here and attended local schools. She works as a medical secretary to a local doctor. She is choral director at St. Paul's Methodist church. We hope that we will have you in other musicals, Janice.

CAROL DESVOIGNE (Tina) Carol appeared last at TLT as the blonde file clerk in "Point of No Return." She was in "Desert Song" last season. She had one of the leading roles in "Finian's Rainbow" last fall at Ft. Lewis Little Theatre. You will enjoy her work in this production too.

ROJEAN COOK (Tina) Rojean appeared last at TLT in "Biography," a number of years ago. Since then she has been busy taking care of her three children. She is now studying modeling. We hope that we will be seeing more of her at TLT from now on.

SAL VALLELUNGA (Con) This very talented young man is making his first appearance at TLT. He hails from San Francisco, is at present with "Uncle Sam" at Ft. Lewis. He has had a vast amount of experience in musicals and night club work in California. He played a major role in "Finian's Rainbow," besides doing the choreography. He has been kept busy at the Fort doing other shows. We are glad that you can be with us for this show, Sal.

BOB DETTLING (Kid) Bob's first role at TLT was a memorable piece of work as the juvenile delinquent in "Detective Story." Since then he has done a number of roles at TLT.

JACK RICHARDSON (Governor) You have enjoyed Jack on stage here at TLT in plays as well as musicals. He appeared last as the captain in "No Time for Sergeants," opening this season. His first appearance at TLT was as the Captain in "Carousel."

RICHARD PORTER (Governor) This is Richard's first appearance at TLT. He has had much experience in light opera, though, as he was a member of the Northwest Light Opera Company in Seattle for five years. He is a member of the "Cleft Dwellers" and is a soloist at Christ Episcopal Church.

MARGARET ZAFERIN (Countess) Margaret is also a veteran performer at TLT. She has appeared in many of our musicals and plays. This role in "The Red Mill" is a difficult one since all of her lines are in French, quite a challenge.

JOHN BRYANT (Burgomaster) This is John's third musical for TLT. He first appeared in "The Merry Widow"; next, "Carousel." He has had many leading roles in plays presented here. The role of the sheriff in "The Desperate Hours" was so well done as to be remembered by many of us for a long time.

RICHARD BOSTWICK (Burgomaster) This is Dick's first appearance in any musical. He is a member of the choir at Holy Rosary Church and a member of the "Cleft Dwellers." Dick and his wife are fortunate indeed since they are the parents of eight children. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Bostwick!

PAT STEELE (Willem) Pat is always a favorite with TLT audiences. He has appeared in major roles in many of our plays. The latest appearance was the General in "No Time for Sergeants." This is his first musical, which he says he is enjoying.

VIRG GROFF (Pennyfeather) This well known thespian needs no introduction to TLT audiences. Virg has taken part in every musical that TLT has presented. He also has appeared in major roles in many of our plays. He can always be counted on to give an outstanding performance. He is also a hard working member of the TLT Board of Directors.

SGT. ROBERT SPEIGHT (Franz) Bob has been a valuable addition to our theatre this year. He has worked in almost every capacity back stage besides playing a number of roles in plays. His first appearance here was in "No Time for Sergeants." His next role was in "Visit to a Small Planet."

The Tacoma Little Theatre is pleased to contribute its facilities to the "Civic Drama School Roald Reitan Scholarship Fund."

Mr. Reitan will offer a medley of Victor Herbert songs the first three weeks during intermission of "The Red Mill" now in production.

Our thanks to the committee consisting of Dr. Harold Long, Reno Odlin, Gerrit Vander Ende, Mrs. L. T. Murray, Mrs. Byron D. Scott and Mr. T. Robert Faragher. Those who wish to contribute to the scholarship may send their checks to the "Civic Drama School Roald Reitan Scholarship Fund," c/o Mona Freeman, Puget Sound National Bank, Tacoma, Washington.

Proud indeed are we of Tacoma of our fellow townsman and his great achievement in winning a Metropolitan Opera contract in national competition.

THE OLD RED MILL — PROGRESS MILL

Do the picturesque blades of the Old Red Mill seem to give you a feeling of the cool sea air of Holland? — Well, really, it's the blades of progress here at Tacoma Little Theatre that's bringing that delightful feeling — for with the opening of this show we are proud to introduce to our members and patrons a new air-conditioning unit. Of course, for this ever increasing program of theatre improvement — we need your support — and, contrary to what you may hear tonight — "MONEY IS the object." Join the following impressive group of theatre patrons — Make the Tacoma Little Theatre your theatre.
