ACT III

An hour Later

"Visit to a Small Planet" is an imaginative affair in which Kreton comes from another planet to do a bit of sightseeing and to see or start a war. He thinks he has arrived in time to see the Civil War—which, he thinks, will be fun—but, has misjudged his time and arrives in 1959. Where he comes from, civilization has gone far beyond what we have here. What the stranger observes is often very funny because it is so obviously average. He is enchanted with all the new playthings that the 20th Century has invented for war-making, and wants to toss a few of them around and make his own war. He thinks a few people should be happy to die for his amusement; and it takes the combined action of the entire cast, including a general who wants to go back to the laundry, to persuade him to call off his war.

"Visit to a Small Planet" was written for an hour television show; but proved to be so unusually popular that Playwright Gore Vidal was persuaded to use the subject matter for a full evening's entertainment.

Who's Who

BY LOUIS K. WOODFORD, SR.

More or less in the order of appearance
 we present:

ROBERT SPEIGHT (Gen. Tom Powers)
 S/Sgt. Bob Speight, USAF, McChord Air Force Base, is forging ahead rapidly. In "No Time for Sergeants" he appeared as
 Sgt. King who fell heir to all the misfits.

Now in less than three months he has attained the status of a two star General,
 USA. Not bad! During his 15-year hitch with the Air Force he has worked with little theatre groups in Alaska, Texas, New York and now Tacoma. Why? Because he likes it. Can you think of a better reason?

Who's Who (Continued)

DR. HERBERT HARTLEY (Roger Spelding) Lower extremities are his forte—he's a chiropodist with offices at 614 St. Helens Ave. (No charge for advertising). Those of you who saw "Inherit the Wind" will remember him as Sillers, the fellow who let his wife take care of the religion for the family while he "just worked at the feed store." If your feet hurt, let Herb put 'em back into shape.

EMILY ROUDEBUSH (Reba Spelding) To present in chronological order the activities of this gal would fill more space than contained in this program. Suffice to say she is a veteran TLT member dating back to the days on Carr St. A past vice president and member of the general board and currently chairman of the Foyer Host and Hostess committee and also working on the musical production which will close the current season. Was last seen as Margaret Lord in "The Philadelphia Story," prior to which she worked in "Chicken Every Sunday," "Dinner at Eight," "The Merry Widow," and when not otherwise engaged, finds time to work back stage. Would there were a hundred more with her enthusiasm for TLT.

CLAUDETTE ROGERS (Ellen Spelding) Made her debut with TLT two months ago as Rachael Brown, daughter of the Rev. Jeremiah Brown, in "Inherit the Wind," an emotional part which was no small chore for a gal just out of high school, and she came through like a veteran. She is unencumbered, lives with her parents and accounting is her vocation. Music is her hobby, the piano and cello predominating. TLT always needs young blood and new faces and Claudette is thrice welcome. Y'all know Claudette Colbert—well, just keep your eye on Claudette Rogers, and perhaps one day you'll be saying "I knew her when."

RODERICK GLEN (Conrad Mayberry) Rod is a dental technician (it's a hard pull) at Ft. Lewis. This is his second season with TLT and his last appearance was in "No Time for Sergeants" when he did Irvin

Blanchard, the young fellow that had "ROTC" (not a disease). Has done Little Theatre work in his home town of Orlando, Florida and Plainfield, New Jersey and made his Tacoma debut in "The Great Sebastians."

THOR NEILSEN (Kreton) TLT is known as amateur theatre but occasionally we are fortunate securing professional talent and that's what we have in Thor. His home is Anaheim, Calif. As a professional he has appeared on TV in Kraft Theatre, Robert Montgomery Presents and Studio One. A graduate of American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York, four seasons of stock and made his Tacoma debut in "The Desperate Hours" in March 1958. Staged and directed "The Desert Song" in June and in Sept. '58 did "Manual Dexterity" in "No Time for Sergeants." Produced and directed "Finnian's Rainbow" at the Ft. Lewis Little Theatre and last appeared on our boards doing a musical skit based on "The King and I" for the Dick Odlin Memorial Variety Show. Again we say "Thanks, Army" for making available this outstanding talent. And thanks to you, Thor, for your interest in our amateur organization.

JIM TABOR (General's Aide) Jim hails from Riverside, California, where he did some work with the Community Playhouse. Now stationed at Madigan where he is a lab technician, and still a bachelor.

Credit goes to Thor Nielsen for introducing Jim to our theatre. He appeared in "The Desert Song" and we hope to see more of him in the future.

PAUL BENSON (Delton 4) Another one of TLT'S regular actors. He played roles in "Mr. Roberts" and "The Great Sebastians." He also has appeared in plays for the Lakewood Players. He is employed by the "City," and also has another hobby—golf. Paul is the father of three boys and one girl.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Tacoma Little Theatre is indebted to the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company for the donation of two barracks-type buildings from their Eagle Gorge holdings. These buildings have been moved to our location, adjacent to our building, and will be used as temporary warehouses, which have been badly needed to augment our storage facilities. These buildings will serve our purposes nicely pending completion of plans and financing for the remaining portion of the permanent building within the next year or two. Our sincere thanks and appreciation to our friends of Weyerhaeuser.
