DO YOU KNOW . . .

That the "TLT Repertory Company" made its first appearance October 16th at Fife?

That the Tacoma Little Theatre is mentioned in the November issue of HOLIDAY MAGAZINE?

That last year we had the largest membership west of the Rocky Mountains; and, with your help, can maintain that position this season?

That there are about 60 pupils enrolled in Junior Theatre?

That the Jane McKee Organ Studio, 6th Ave. and Pearl, is furnishing the GULBRANSEN ORGAN that is being used in this show?

That "Thank you" for Publicity, to the following: Virgil Langdon, Marcia Shannon, Gloria Hill, Tribune Publishing Co.; Bert McMurtrie, Dick Weeks, KTAC Radio Station; Loni Smith, KMO Radio Station; Don St. Thomas, KTNT Radio Station.

That Director "Bill Marlatt" has worked with the Zeigfeld Follies?

That "Ah, Wilderness!" (the next show coming up) gives you an opportunity to start working, in some capacity, at the Tacoma Little Theatre?

That TLT plays to about 25,000 people each season?

That TLT will be a much better theatre when you phone and say, "I have a few extra hours in the daytime, or evening, when I can work at the Theatre. What can I do?"

That TLT's motto is: "A Community Theatre of the people, for the people and by the people of Tacoma"?

FOLKS! MEET OUR NEW DIRECTOR
MR. WILLIAM F. MARLATT

You have only to meet and talk a few minutes with Bill Marlatt to realize that here is a man full of lore of the Theatre in the aristocratic tradition. His heart is in the Theatre and his ambition is to make our Tacoma Little Theatre "The Dramatic Heart of Tacoma."

In "Twentieth Century Follies" our director takes us through a half century of drama, music and dancing. In conversation with friends Bill Marlatt reminisces of the Theatre Greats he has worked with—The Dennishawn Dancers, Martha Graham and the great Jose Greco.

These are reasons for you to join the Patron List and hold out a real welcome and big hand to Bill Marlatt.
