Who's Who

BY DOREEN HOPPER

DR. (Major) MURRAY LIEBERMAN (Mr. Frank) is from Brooklyn, N. Y. "From" is a good term, since he, his wife and daughter Karen, intend making Tacoma their home when his Army service is terminated. In fact, they are already home-owners, which should make us very proud. Dr. Lieberman admits only to high school dramatics before his appearance in "Hatful of Rain" at Fort Lewis, but here is "a fine talent."

DORIS REILLY (Miep) and her Air Force husband are both from Philadelphia, where she studied opera, but preferred and performed in Gilbert & Sullivan. In the Azores she played Billy Dawn in "Born Yesterday," and in a Fort Lewis production of three "One-Acts" made an amazing transition from an old woman in one play to a "jazzy" blonde in another. Hope she is still here when T.L.T.'s Spring musical comes around, as she is a very talented singer.

MAGGIE JONES (Mrs. Van Daan) one of our most talented and versatile actresses, has also proved her ability as assistant director for a number of shows. She was last seen in "Gigi," and will never be forgotten for her role in "Carousel." Was the dramatic director of "Bell, Book and Candle."

DAVID JACOBSON (Mr. Van Daan) new this year at UPS as Professor of Journalism, has always combined English and Drama in his academic career, both at Stanford and University of California. A native New Yorker, his first appearance was in "Outward Bound" at the Queens Community Theatre. Very important—he is a bachelor!

SAL VALLELUNGA (Peter Van Daan) is another reason for us to be thankful for Fort Lewis and McChord. He is a professional actor and dancer from San Francisco where he was associated with the Theatre Group and the Opera Ring. Besides producing variety shows at Fort Lewis, he will be remembered for his performance in T.L.T.'s "Red Mill."

MICKEY BURRELL (Mrs. Frank) is making her first appearance front and center. She and husband, Don, are usually tireless backstage workers. Daughter, Pamela, a member of Jan Colum's Ballet, was last seen in "Gigi." Many of you will know Mickey as the friendly receptionist at Richards Studio.

JOLENE EMERY (Margot Frank) hailed from Seattle originally, where she appeared with the Seattle Repertory Ballet and the Aqua Follies. Locally, she has worked with the Lakewood Players in "Sabrina." Her husband, of the Lakewood Lumber & Hardware Company, is now with Uncle Sam in Germany.

DARLENE EMERSON (Anne Frank) who was this season's adorable Gigi, lives with an Aunt in Fircrest while training for a job. Hopes to save enough to enroll in the University of Washington Drama School. Her only experience was in high school productions here and in Phoenix, Arizona. Her exceptional talent should take her wherever she wants to go.

SALEM NOURSE (Mr. Kraler) can have more fun with any kind of an accent than just about anyone we know. His versatility is amazing, but our favorite among his many roles is still "Life With Father." On the serious side, his forward-thinking has been behind, not only the steady growth of our theatre, but also several other civic enterprises.

DR. MAL MACDONALD (Mr. Dussel) here makes quite a switch from his profession as a contact lens specialist to a dentist. But think of some of his roles, from the drunken Uncle Sid of "Ah Wilderness" to the magician of "The Great Sebastian"!

CAST: 5 Males; 6 Females

Tryouts for casting to be held at the theatre Monday, March 14, 8:00 p.m.

The public is invited to participate in the tryouts.

STORY OF THE PLAY

This audacious comedy by the master wit and satirist was successfully presented in New York at the Plymouth Theatre starring Clifton Webb. A recent revival in London surpassed its earlier triumphant run. Garry Essendine, a popular and pampered actor, is busily making preparations for an extended tour. His apartment is invaded by Daphne, a beautiful but stagestruck youngster. When his wife, his partners and his numerous admirers arrive, Garry is hard pressed to escape an embarrassing and easily misinterpreted situation for both him and Daphne. With typical Noel Coward repartee and dazzling wit, he sidesteps complications and mounting confusion. Having locked Daphne in a room, he flees his flat with his wife Liz, with whom he has been reunited.

TO OUR PATRONS — SINCERE THANKS!

The response from our usual year-end renewal notices of Patron memberships has been most generous and gratifying. We are indeed grateful.

Supplementing our revenues from regular membership dues and box office, this continuing Patron support has been a source of great strength and inspiration. It has made possible a planned program of improvements in our building for the comfort and pleasure of our audiences, and in equipment enabling us to present such great plays as the one you are viewing tonight — "The Diary of Anne Frank," with its intricate production problems; and coming in June on our stage, one of the greatest musicals of our time — the long coveted "Oklahoma" by Rogers & Hammerstein.

So, to you who have helped make possible the consistent growth and progress of the Tacoma Little Theatre — again, our sincere thanks. To you whose names do not appear below — a hearty invitation to climb aboard the TLT bandwagon. There's a price for every purse — tax deductible, too! Just fill out the coupon and turn it into the box office.
