DOWN ACTORS' ALLEY

BY CECYL MURPHY

NANCY KELLEY (Daphne Stillington) came to Tacoma from Seattle just half a year ago with her husband, David, who is connected with Kelley Enterprises. She took work in radio and T.V. at the University of Washington and worked for a while at King T.V. She is interested in skiing and writing. Nancy is a newcomer to TLT, loves the play and the people in it. Felicitations!

ROLLIN GUERNSEY (Fred) has been in numerous shows here, from the "Shop at Sly Corner" to "Inherit the Wind." He's an accountant and in addition to his interest in the theatre he likes to fish, play golf and dotes on his one and only grand-daughter.

VIRGINIA DILLE (Monica Reed). This beautiful blonde played "A Daisy" as her first dramatic part in a Ruth Radford production, at age six. Some years later she was in "Knickerbocker Holiday," the first play given in the present theatre and has done many others since. Virginia is a member of the Executive Committee of the TLT Board of Directors and is 1st vice-president of Tacoma Girl Scout Council. She has two daughters and a son, loves to knit, is an accomplished seamstress, has a part time job as Traffic Controller at UPS and here she is in our show. What a gal!

JOHN GAYTON (Garry Essendine) appeared first for TLT in "Sabrina Fair" and since then has delighted audiences with fine performances in a number of productions. Although we value this handsome guy, with his excellent voice and diction, as a player he also lends a hand backstage where he gives valuable help. He has been in two Lakewood shows this year. We're glad to have him back in this Noel Coward part.

MAXINE MANDLES (Liz Essendine) is lavishly supplied with talent and has been doing things for TLT ever since she took the part of an ingenue in a play at the Old Town theatre. Maxine majored in drama at the University of Washington and played with the Penthouse Players. Of her many excellent portrayals here we remember her fine work in "Dial M for Murder." She is a member of the Executive Committee of the TLT Board and is an amateur painter of merit. But her special interest is her family, two sons, one at Stanford and a teen-ager at home.

ROBERT MARCHESINI (Roland Maule) was in "Smiling Through" at TLT when just out of Lincoln High. After attending Pacific University at Forest Grove and doing a tour in the service he's back in Tacoma with a wife and an adorable nine months old daughter named Gina Louise. He's now studying Business Administration at Knapps, loves reading and the theatre and shelters ideas of doing Shakespeare sometime.

HARVIE PETERSON (Morris Dickson) is a newcomer to our theatre and we welcome him. Coming from Wililamsburg, his schools are Virginia Polytechnical and William and Mary. After spending four years in the Air Force he now lives in Puyallup and works at Boeings. His interests are reading and music and he is a kissing cousin to DIANE PETERSEN (Joanna Lyppiatt) who has been in lots of TLT shows—"Desert Song," "Bus Stop," "Twentieth Century," "No Time for Sergeants." Diane went to the University of Washington and played with the Penthouse Players. Her hobby is collecting record albums, especially Broadway musicals and choral music.

WILFRED COATES (Hugo Lippiatt) is a native Tacoman, but a newcomer to TLT. He was graduated from Lincoln High, where he sang the leading role in "Blossom Time." He is married, and his hobby is music. Welcome to TLT, Bill!

SHARON FONTANA (Mrs. Saltburn) a Lincoln graduate, has been a homemaker for a year and loves it. This is her first time in a play here and we are very glad that she tried out for this show. New talent is always welcome. Underneath that padding is a slim, beautiful figure that Sharon keeps that way by swimming, skating and tennis.

NEXT ATTRACTION

"OKLAHOMA"

. . . This is "Americana" . . . the greatest of all American musicals. This is a show that nobody will be missing! . . . But, you'll have to make reservations EARLY!

Dates of show: June 1, 2, 3, 4 — June 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 — June 13, 15, 16, 17, 18 — June 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25.

How can YOU help the Theatre handle the attendance?

ANSWER: If it is convenient for you to attend on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday nights, we shall be most appreciative. There are MANY who HAVE TO COME week ends. We don't like to say "no seats left" to them. Also, if possible, come during the first two weeks. Human nature sometimes procrastinates, and it is often impossible to take care of the crowds the last two weeks.

THANKS, MILLIONS! — but whether it be Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday or Saturday: DON'T MISS THE SHOW!

PRESENT LAUGHTER
Feelin' Good with Noel Coward

As our hero tonight squirms through a variety of Noel Coward's enjoyable folderol and banter—life, loves, lighthearted intrigue, self appreciation, etc. of a great matinee idol, you can enjoy yourselves and "feel good" with "HOTEL," God of Happiness and Laughter.

In our last production "Anne Frank," you the audience faced up to some of the stark realism of this world and you "felt good" to be an American.

And we are sure that you are going to "feel good" again in June when you witness the great musical "OKLAHOMA"—beautiful music, exciting new voices and talent, one of the greatest and most popular of musicals.

And you can "feel real good" again when you join the following group of Patron Members who help make possible some of those "extras" in the way of technical equipment and comforts for your enjoyment of the theatre.

The coupon on the opposite page is for your convenience. Just fill out and turn in to the box office. We'll do the rest, thank you.
