May we call to your attention TLT'S policy of not seating late-comers until after the first scene. We know you'll want to cooperate and help to avoid this practice that is annoying to actors and audience alike.

SUGGESTION: If possible, pick up your reservations in advance. This will avoid holding up the line at the box office.

WHO'S WHO

By HELEN MURLAND

GRACE GARLAND (Madam Arcati)—Playing the part of Madam Arcati may be called type casting but we call it perfect casting. (Peggy Wood played this part in the New York play.) Grace is our favorite TLT grandmother and she proudly shows pictures of her eight grandchildren... including twins. Orchids to this little lady for 35 years of TLT service in numerous plays and twice as President. Grace enjoys doing colorful hooked rugs and is a gifted knitter. We especially liked a purple hand-knit dress she wore to one of the rehearsals. The Garlands have just recently moved to the Sky Terrace.

DODIE BUSBY (Ruth)—Playing the part of the second wife of Charles and a well matched team they are. Dodie is another old time member crossing off fourteen years with us. Drama was her major at Washington State. Junior Theatre, as its director, is her big consuming interest. Francis and Dodie just designed and built their own home this year at University Estates. Dodie proudly states that her husband is an underwriter for New York Life and they have a daughter, five, and a son, three.

JULIE MARSHALL (Mrs. Bradman) — Known to all of us after several TLT years of service and some 18 plays we are delighted to see her tonight. Lakewood Players borrows her from us now and then. A busy mother with a boy and girl to care for she still finds time to pursue such hobbies as water skiing and skin diving. Don't tell a soul—but you can find her every Tuesday playing bridge with three men. Julie's eyes sparkle as she tells about work as a Grey Lady at the Vets' Hospital. We are sure the men look forward to the card games and Julie's visits.

BYRON STENSEN (Dr. Bradman)—Seeing more of By is a pleasure. This is his second appearance for us. Retired after 23 years in the Air Force, he is Tacoma's gain. In the service he taught public speaking and is presently an instructor for Dale Carnegie course. He has a family of four children from ages 18 to 11. Another family package—the musical will have By's wife at the organ and daughter in the Chorus. Sports are high on this man's list of activities and he is promotion director for Lakewood Tower Bowling Lanes.

DOROTHY CLARK (Edith)—With great vim and vigor she tackles the part of the maid. Dorothy is on the TLT Board as Chairman of Props. The Clarks have two teenage children and one married adopted daughter. Theatre work runs in the family—it is not unusual to see any one of them working behind scenes. You enjoyed Dorothy in Point of No Return and Oklahoma. Our hats are off to her for being Assistant Director for the last three musicals. Writing poetry and short stories are engrossing hobbies for Dorothy. Tacoma born, Dorothy and George were highschool sweethearts.

MEET THE CAST!

MARIAN BRIDGES (Elvira) plays the part of the hauntingly naughty wife of Charles. We welcome for the second time this year, tall good-looking Marian. You saw her in the Doll's House. She also appeared in First Lady for Lakewood Players. The Opera Community Guild in Dallas discovered her talents a few years ago and acting has become a hobby ever since. She is surrounded with activity from a daughter, nine, and an adopted son, just seven months old. Many church organizations are included in her busy schedule as she is the wife of a Unitarian minister. (Husband Gene has a law background to his credit.) Marian is an expert seamstress (costume chairman, take note). Oil painting is her latest hobby—and we hope to have her exhibit one of her oils next year.

KIT CARSON (Charles)—A round of applause goes to Kit for a very successful year as our Director. He has brought a lot of new talent to the theatre and designs all his own sets (including those wonderful Shakespearean costume designs). Kit studied medicine in college and had acting as a hobby. He has played with such notables as Edward Everett Horton, Rita Moreno and Pam Britton. He has been seen in several plays at the Cirque in Seattle. Kit and his wife, Cynthia, who is a nurse at Tacoma General, have a darling little daughter. Being an accomplished pianist and artist are more of Kit's talents. (Be sure see the lobby exhibit.)

PLAY REVIEW

Monday, April 16th, a popular Broadway play will be presented by Maggie Jones and John Gayton.

Preceding the Play Review will be an election of the 1962-63 Executive Board on the Tacoma Little Theatre Board of Directors.

A social hour, under the chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Murtland, will follow the evening's entertainment.

Season ticket holders are admitted by showing their season tickets at the box office window.

1962-63 SEASON

Season tickets for the 1962-63 season will be available at the box office May 28.

The 1962-63 season promises to be the best in TLT's 44-year history. SEVEN shows will comprise a well-rounded season with music, comedy, drama and suspense.

A season ticket at the Tacoma Little Theatre is the best bargain in Tacoma. Plan to get your 1962-63 season ticket when you attend "Brigadoon."

JR. THEATRE RECITAL

The Junior Theatre will have its final recital of the 1961-62 season Saturday, May 28th.

There are over 100 "Juniors" enrolled in Junior Theatre.

The first group will be presented at 10:00 a.m. The second group will be presented at 2:00 p.m.

YOU and YOUR CHILDREN are invited.

No reserved seats. No admission.

BLITHE SPIRITS

You needn't be a medium or magician in order to conjure up hundreds of "Blithe Spirits" among TLT enthusiasts.

Just take time out from your approaching rendezvous with the TAX COLLECTOR (Whew, what a struggle!); wave that magic wand "your pen" and write a Patron check to join the Blithe Spirits named below to save on next year's tax bill.

Behold! you are now an enthusiastic Blithe Spirit for TLT—and you can tell your wife about it, too. And what's more, you will be in fine fettle to enjoy the coming Musical in June—BRIGADOON!
