WHO'S WHO
 By GENE SKIDMORE

MINNABEL MARLATT ("Helen Potts")—Mrs. Marlatt is making her initial appearance at T.L.T. She has appeared in Pearl Harbor Little Theatre productions, namely, "Picnic" and "Philadelphia Story," and also did make-up and wardrobe work for the same group. Mr. Marlatt is retired from the U.S. Navy and a son is attending Wilson High School. The family intends to stay in this area permanently, and we say, "Welcome aboard and good sailing!"

RICHARD DOSSETT ("Hal Carter")—Dick is on his way to becoming a T.L.T. veteran, this being his fifth show for us. He was last seen in "Othello," and previously in "South Pacific," "Taming of the Shrew" and "Brigadoon." He has also worked with the On Stage Players. He was born in Yakima, Washington, lives at Steilacoom, is single and presently employed at Sears. He is interested in TV and radio production, and since he has produced so well for us we predict—success!

JUDY JACKSON ("Millie Owens")—This marks Judy's first time "on the boards," other than productions at Lincoln High where she is a Junior. However, T.L.T. is not strange to her as her mother, Alma, and sister, Nancy, have appeared in productions on this stage. Judy says she would like to follow acting but at the moment is working toward becoming a teacher. No matter which path she follows, we wish her well and hope that she will continue to be active with our group.

BOB BERG ("Bomber")—Bob is making his second appearance on our stage. You may remember him in "Operation Madball" here, or in "Playboy of the Western World" at Lakewood. Bob is a Junior at Curtis High School and he plans on college and majoring in Social Sciences. He is a native Washingtonian and presently resides in University Place. Nice to see you again, Bob!

SHARI MILLER ("Madge Owens")—Another first for T.L.T. Shari has modeled professionally in California and has appeared on local radio and TV. We are indeed happy she is making her stage debut with us. Shari is married and has three children, two boys and a girl. Husband Don has his own construction business, appropriately named ShariDon Construction. Shari expressed hopes of doing future work for our group and I'm sure we all agree that it would be very nice indeed!

BEVERLY SCOGGIN ("Flo Owens")—I am sure you all remember Bev's fine work in "Look Homeward, Angel" and "Majority of One." A mother of five children, she teaches kindergarten in Fife and still finds time to act as Property Committee chairman and devotes many long hours to T.L.T. Bev taught school for eight years in the "bush" communities in Alaska and we of T.L.T. are happy she is now in our community, because, on stage or backstage, she is strictly "Major" league.

MARY JAMES ("Rosemary Sidney")—Making her second appearance at T.L.T. after a memorable first in "Look Homeward, Angel," is this talented lady from University Place. Mary is married, has four children, and a husband, Frank, who has also appeared on this stage. Also to Mary's credit are roles in "Chalk Garden" and "Playboy of the Western World," and Assistant Director of "Solid Gold Cadillac" at Lakewood. It is a real pleasure to have you with us again, Mary.

DICK JONES ("Alan Seymour")—Dick is returning to our stage after a tour of duty in "Operation Madball." He also appeared in a revue last summer in Lakewood. Dick is attending U.P.S. and still enjoys "single" bliss. One of the Joneses who have contributed so much to T.L.T., and a fine addition to our theatre "family."

VALERIE MARTIN ("Irma Kronkite")—Welcome to another first-time performer on our "hallowed boards." Valerie, however, is not new to the theatre, having worked on props and served in our checkroom. She is married, has five boys, and a husband who is a manager at Sears. We sincerely hope that, though this is a first, it will not be a last, and we shall see Valerie on stage many more times in the future.

BARBARA SIMPSON ("Christine Schoenwalder")—Originally from Waterbury, Conn., now a five-year resident of our fair state, Barbara says, "We love it here!" Well, we are happy to have you and your family, Barbara, and to share in your stage debut, along with your husband and five children. It is always a pleasure to welcome new people to our group, and here's the best of luck to you and yours.

LEO MORIN ("Howard Bevans")—T.L.T.'s able and hard-working Sound Effects Committee chairman, after appearances in "Operation Madball" and "Send Me No Flowers," is back "on the boards" again. Leo is single and teaches dramatics at McCarver Junior High. He has just recovered from a bout with the mumps—fortunately a mild case, and we are happy to have him back, hale, hearty and "sound."

FOYER ART SHOW

The Tacoma Little Theatre is proud to welcome Justin Ware with a one-man art exhibition. Mr. Ware's art is known throughout the United States and Mexico. He hangs in both the major museums and private collections in New York, California, Mexico and in the Tacoma area.

Mr. Ware has studied with the New York Art League, the Cincinnati Art Academy, and in Guadalajara, Mexico. His work is primarily gouache. Of his works he says, "My work, and all art, should be and must be honest, whether non-objective or realistic."

The showcase features works of hand-blown crystal and glass.

Don Hiberly, Chairman
Dr. Roy Wright, Assistant

OPEN JURIED EXHIBITION

The Tacoma Little Theatre will present an open juried exhibition for both amateur and professional artists and craftsmen in June. If you, or a friend, wish a registration blank, please return a name tag to Donald Hiberly, c/o Tacoma Little Theatre, 210 North "Eye" St., Tacoma 3.

OUR NEXT ATTRACTION

"THE FIFTH SEASON"

By SYLVIA REGAN

New York Journal American: "Many resounding funny situations and lines."

New York Daily News: "Full of loud laughs and unexpected jokes."

New York Mirror: "Irresistible fun, for it boasts heart and hilarity."

The scene of this human comedy is the plush showroom-and-office of two partners in the clothing business who have some gorgeous models, beautiful furnishings, and no business. They live from one minute to the next in fear of bankruptcy, then mortgage their shirts to put on a good show for a prospective buyer. RESULT: through twists and turns everything turns out of the hole; also two romances bloom out of the whole affair.

"PICNIC"

"The Summer's Flower Is To The Summer Sweet." "Shakespeare's Sonnets" is the theme used by William Inge the author of "Picnic," the play that you are enjoying tonight.

All of us who are members of Tacoma Little Theatre feel the same way about our theatre. The dream that we are trying to fulfill is the enlargement of our theatre facilities so that we can present for your pleasure shows that are impossible for us to present to you now because of our lack of backstage space.

So, why don't you help us to fulfill this wish by joining the list of Patrons now. Just send us a check made out to the Civic Drama School. Remember, it's Tax Deductible.

So, let's have a "Picnic" tonight and enjoy this Pulitzer prize winner.

Remember, spring is coming. Next we have "The Fifth Season" on April 19th and finally on June 3rd the great American classic among musicals — "SHOWBOAT"!
