WHO'S WHO

BY JOAN TEACHMAN

BETTY DAY (Judy Kimball) has previously graced the TLT stage in "The Women," "The Constant Wife" and "First Lady." She has also participated in many play reviews and readings; among them, "Who Was That Lady I Saw You With?," "The Rainmaker" and "The Matchmaker." Betty has the care of four children to keep her busy, but she's finding time to earn credits at UPS toward a master's degree in literature, "little-by-little," she says. We say, "Good for you, Betty!"

CHUCK GUILFORD (George Kimball), born in McKenna, Wash., is a broker associated with Dean Witter & Co. of the New York Stock Exchange. TLT audiences will recall with pleasure his fine work in "Mr. Roberts," "Teahouse of the August Moon," and "Ah, Wilderness." Although Chuck commutes from Gig Harbor, he serves as assistant treasurer on the TLT Executive Board. His daughter, a sophomore at the U of Washington, is minoring in dramatics. Could it be a family tradition in the making?

BEN EMERSON (Bert Powers) did "I Remember Mama" and "Boy Meets Girl" for the TLT some years ago. After a respite, he returned to work in "20th Century Follies" and "Dark at the Top of the Stairs." Ben, the father of two children, does newscasts, sportcasts and announcements for KTAC Radio. Golf, photography, reading and boating are among his varied interests. If you want to see his eyes sparkle, ask him about his Boston whaler!

LOUIS K. WODFORD, Sr. (Dr. Morrissey) is one of the TLT's "old timers." Theatre fans have enjoyed the results of his dramatic labors for almost 25 years. "Gone With the Wind" and "No Time for Sergeants" are only two on a long list of credits. You will find Louis working as house manager on most opening nights, and he is chairman of the social finance committee, as well. Retired from work at the Bank of California, he declares himself available as "sidewalk superintendent" for any construction project in his vicinity.

GENE SKIDMORE (Arnold Nash) has for many years given the TLT the benefit of his versatility. This "man of many parts" has turned his fine and capable hand to the technical, lighting and production aspects of numerous plays, and "Third Best Sport," "Three Men on a Horse" and "Born Yesterday" found him making good use of his acting ability. Gene, who has three children, was born in Yakima, Wash. The golf course affords him relaxation. I'm sure you'll agree that Yakima's loss was Tacoma's gain.

DR. HERBERT HARTLEY (Mr. Akins) is a chiropodist by profession. He can claim musicals as well as plays on his TLT credit list. "The Bat," "Visit to a Small Planet," "Taming of the Shrew," "Carousel" and "Oklahoma" all knew the sure touch of this thespian. Herb gaily admits to having a wonderful brood of seven children. He says he has no hobbies!

TAMARA DOTY (a girl) (Miss Mason) plays not one but two roles in our play. what is more, this twin characterization marks Tamara's debut at the TLT. She was graduated from Clover Park High School where she joined in various dramatic productions. McInnis Aviation Services are presently enjoying her help as a secretary. Boating is her passion. However, she thinks she might like to try flying, and she knows she would like to work in some more TLT productions. We hope you do, Tamara!

BILL ROSENOW (Vito) works as a security guard for the American District Telegraph Co. As you may suppose this job has its dangerous aspects, but Bill seems equal to them. A native of Tacoma, he attended Wilson High School. This is not only his debut at TLT but his first stage play as well. This ambitious young man plans to get all the experience and training he can, for he would like to work professionally in radio, television or the theatre. We wish you good luck, Bill!

"SEND ME NO FLOWERS"

We are not a "Hypochondriac" resembling the character in the play you are enjoying tonight, and we don't have to be allergic to say "Send Me No Flowers."

You see we'd rather you send us a check—you know one of those checks to the Patron Account payable to the Civic Drama School, the kind that is tax-deductible similar to your other charitable donations. Remember it's soon time for your annual rendezvous with Uncle Sam, the tax collector.

Enjoy the Play, too!
