as legal advisor to the Department of Education. While in Olympia he did some little theatre work, having played in the production "Outward Bound". Bruce and his wife, Margaret, are the proud parents of three little boys.

DAVID ISAACSON (Victor Velasco) is really a stalwart in our Theatre, as this is his 8th show here not counting many of the musicals. David has two main interests, Art and the Theatre. He has studied at the Massachusetts School of Art, at the Chicago Art Institute and at the Art Academy in San Francisco. He is wonderful to have around the theatre to help with decor or whenever a portrait is needed as a prop. Remember the picture of Father in "Dear Charles"? David really does specialize in portraits. He has one of "Two Children" hanging in our lobby display, right now. Be sure to look for it. His daytime work is with the Social Security, in Claims Development.
