"WHO'S WHO"

By Jim Gibson

Edna Peterson (Mme. St. Pé)

Tacoma audiences are quite familiar with Edna at TLT. She has been seen in such plays as 'Barefoot in the Park,' "Roman Candle," "Chicken Every Sunday," and "Dinner at Eight." Edna is married to Eric, a well known TLT actor. She also has a little white poodle that stole the show in "Dinner at Eight!" Edna has spent most of her life on the east coast. She and Eric came to Tacoma in 1963 and opened the Schnelling and Schnelling Employment agency. Besides the agency and theatre involvement, Edna loves to play tennis as well as exploring the Pacific Northwest.

Bob Schmid (General St. Pé)

Bob is a veteran TLT actor appearing in such plays as, "Born Yesterday," "Advice and Consent," and "Best Man." He is an instructor at L. H. Bates Vocational Technical Institute but will go into retirement in June after 21 years at the Institute.

Jeanette Schmid (Mme. DuPont-Fredaine)

As you may have guessed, Jeanette is the wife of Bob. She and Bob have appeared together in other plays such as, "The Guardsman," and "They Knew What They Wanted" Jeanette is a home economics teacher at Woodbrook Jr. High. The Schmid's have 3 boys, 2 are attending college while the youngest is still at home.

Gordon Daniel (Gaston)

Gordon is a newcomer to TLT but is not new to the stage. He was active in dramatics in high school as well as Eastern Wash. College. Besides his flair for acting, Gordon loves to sing. He was a member of the Silvertones at Franklin Pierce High School.

Ada Huffman (New Maid)

Ada is new to TLT in fact this is her first appearance on the stage. She came to the auditions to listen and found herself reading for a part! Ada had two years at Eastern Wash. College and is presently employed at Johnny's Dock.

Don Melville (Father Ambrose)

You will probably recognize Don from the "Odd Couple" where he played the part of Benny. Besides the role in this play, he also helped with building the set. Don is employed at the Tacoma Title Co. and plays the "hot corner" (3rd base that is.) on a slow pitch ball team.

"WHO'S WHO" (Continued)

Elise Arnold (Assistant Director)

Elise has been involved most of her life in the theatre. She and her husband have played professionally and semi-professionally in the Boston area. They also had a company of their own called the "Chapel Players," that toured the east coast. You may recognize her name from the TLT play, "Night of the Iguana," where she played Hanna. She also was stage manager for the "Odd Couple." Besides Elise's acting and directing abilities, she has also sung in some small opera companies, plays the violin and gives piano lessons. Her husband is a professor at PLU in the Drama department.

Joan Harding (Stage Manager)

Joan is a senior at Mt. Tahoma where she is presently directing "Through the Open Window." She is quite active at school in both drama and student government. Joan is president of her senior class. Joan made her debut at TLT in the "Night of the Iguana."

Barbara Behrmann (Sidonia)

Barbara is presently attending Highline Community College where she has appeared in "Night Must Fall," and "Under Milkwood." Her interest in the theatre had led her to trying out for this play. This is Barbara's first appearance at TLT.

Kristie Acheson (Estelle)

Kristi is the youngest member of the cast. She is quite active in drama. This is Kristi's first appearance at TLT but she is certainly not unfamiliar to the stage since she has been acting for a number of years. Coming recently from Kansas City, Mo. she appeared in "Mid Summers Nite Dream," with the Missouri Repertory Theatre.

Kent Alcorn (Dr. Bonfant)

This is Kent's first experience on the stage. He is an accomplished clarinetist who has played with the PLU Symphony. Kent is married, has 2 daughters and is presently the Director of the Language Lab at Charles Wright Academy.

Linda Norton (First Maid)

This is Linda's first time in front of an audience although she did work back stage during the run of "Time of the Cuckoo." Linda is new to Tacoma coming from Boston, Mass. where she attended Chandler School for Women. She is presently employed at A.B.A.M. Engineers, Inc.

Susan Sandegren (Mille. De Ste-Euverte)

Susan is making her debut at TLT. While living in Yakima, she was active in the Yakima Little Theatre where she was seen as Emily in "Our Town." She also appeared in "Essie" and "You Can't Take It With You." Susan comes to us from a 9 year residency in San Francisco. She has also traveled extensively throughout Europe, attended the Sorbonne in Paris, WSU at Pullman and has been a stewardess.
