"WHO'S WHO"

By Mrs. Francis R. Busby

Top talent, direction and a clever script would be any critic's choice for a delightful evening in the theatre . . . and that's just what TLT's "Critic's Choice" promises you . . . featuring the following talented people!

JIM REYNOLDS . . . "Parker" . . . 16 years old when he first appeared on the Tacoma Little Theatre stage, Jim returned last year to play in "Born Yesterday." In the years between, Jim has been putting his many talents to good use with the Lakewood Players. Some of his recent acting credits include "I Can't Hear You When the Water's Running," "Man for All Seasons" and "The Miser." Jim also directs for the Lakewood Players, and is a member of their Board of Control. Jim uses his many creative abilities in advertising with Cole and Weber, Inc.

KAREN HAVNAER . . . "Angela" . . . "Madwoman of Chaillot," "Phoenix Too Frequent," and "Othello" are just some of the plays Karen appeared in at Pacific University in Oregon, where she earned her B.A. Since coming to Tacoma, Karen has played in "Love in E Flat" and "Harvey." A substitute teacher for the Tacoma and Federal Way school systems, Karen loves theatre and hopes to spend a lot of her spare time at TLT.

TED REINERT . . . "John" . . . Tacoma audiences have enjoyed Ted in "King and I," "Time of the Cuckoo" and "Summertree." 13 years old and an 8th grader at Mason Junior High, Ted likes swimming, reading, history, karate, and theatre. His ambition . . . to be an actor when he grows up! Who suggested he try out for his first part? . . . his step-father . . . Al Cummings!

EDNA PETERSON . . . "Charlotte" . . . A real favorite with Tacoma audiences, Edna has appeared in many, many plays since her first role in Tacoma in 1963 in "Roman Candle." Edna acted with the Swarthmore Players and studied with director Arthur Storch in Philadelphia. Edna, and her husband Erick, opened their successful employment agency, Snelling and Snelling just 8 years ago. Now they own the franchise for the Tacoma, Seattle, Spokane and Everett offices. No wonder Snelling and Snelling are the largest professional employment counselors in the world!

TOM BIRKELAND . . . "Dion" . . . "A Thousand Clowns," "Music Man," "Sound of Music," and "Harvey" are Tom's TLT credits. A theatre major at Ellensburg for 2½ years, Tom also enjoys writing plays. A 3-act avant-garde drama of his is scheduled to be produced at Ellensburg this spring. Single, and eligible, Tom sells shoes for Hardy's Shoe Store on the Mall.

BEV WILLIAMS . . . "Ivy" . . . Music and drama claim much of Bev's time. She is a soloist at First Methodist Church, a member of Phi Beta, drama chairman for Arts for Youth, and she works with music with pre-schoolers in the Hilltop area. In her "spare" time, she bicycles 5 miles a day and works as "girl-Friday" for her free-lance writer-photographer husband, Herb. Her last role at TLT was in "Time of the Cuckoo."

BABBIE ROGERS . . . "Essie" . . . Even though Babbie only appears briefly in "Critic's Choice," she has been creating character roles for 20 years at the theater. A Traveling Elementary Librarian for the Tacoma Public Schools, Babbie enjoys Shakespeare and has been going to Ashland for 10 years with Sheila Varey and Peg Poole. By the way, this season's program photos and the pictures on the foyer bulletin board are the products of Babbie's camera!

SHEILA VAREY . . . Director . . . Actress, artist, director . . . the creative talents of this busy gal have enriched Tacoma since 1951. She first appeared at TLT with Dick Odlin in "The Silver Whistle." She received a "Dickie" for best actress for her fiery portrayal of Kate in "Taming of the Shrew." A Shakespeare buff, Sheila hasn't missed a season in Ashland for 10 years. This spring Sheila directed the highly-acclaimed Phi Beta production of "Brecht on Brecht" at U.P.S.
