SYNOPSIS OF SCENES

The entire action of the play spans about two weeks in March. The time is the present. The place is the office-apartment of Dr. Dewey Maugham, a psychiatrist in New York City. If there is any resemblance to persons living or dead, it's because we're all in this thing together.

"WHO'S WHO"

By Don S. Paiva

We welcome John B. Culbertson, back to the 54th season of the Tacoma Little Theatre. John's professional experience has extended from Broadway to the Hawaiian Islands. This is the 51st production that he has directed or assisted in directing at the Tacoma Little Theatre.

JULIE MARSHALL (PAULA) — is no amateur in my book. You may be familiar with Julie's other roles at TLT, such as THE WOMEN, or BLITHE SPIRIT (where, again, she played the wife of Byron Stensen). You may also remember a few articles in the News Tribune that Julie has written. She paints, as the lobby at this theatre will attest to occasionally. She has won prizes for her articles from Writers' Clubs and organizations. She is a favorite actress the first time you see her.

KIM BALCOM (MR. WELLMAN) is a senior at Wilson Hi. His youth belies his talents. (or vice versa). He plays piano, organ, and the accodian. He has done one-acts for nursing homes, catered to children's parties, appeared in Good News at Wilson and played "Sweet William" in THE DRUNKARD at Steve's Gay Nineties.

RUTH KIRK (LESLIE), whose first show here was GOODBYE CHARLIE last season; also has done children's shows while in college; also some Shakespeare. She will be back here for more because we got this gal hooked on the theatre. Doesn't it show on some people?

ROB ROBERTSON (ALEC) is a newcomer to TLT. His experience has been in Houston, Texas, Little Theatre; and he has also done professional "gigs" at the "HUNGRY I" and the "PURPLE ONION." Rob has a Vietnam disability from his stint with the Air Force and is doing his first show since his discharge. He has an engineering degree from Stanford University with a minor in theology. We hope this new 'pro' will be with us for a long time at TLT.

SHARRY CHAPMAN (BARBARA LEONARD) was last seen at TLT in "Gypsy." her acting career includes 23 shows: TLT, Ft. Lewis, Ft. Carson (Colorado), Steve's Gay Nineties and Bremerton Community Theatre. She studied voice at Jordon College of Music (Indianapolis); studied drama at Olympic College; and at present is a bookkeeper at Pacific Finance, Bremerton. And her hobbies: 'knitting', personal and commercial; and knits motto designs for wall hangings. And, for variety, writes poetry. What a gal!

BYRON STENSEN (DR. DEWEY MAUGHAM). This is the second time that 'By' has played the role of the doctor (psychiatrist) in "The Girl in the Freudian Slip" (last spring for the White House Players). When asked if his hobby is psychiatry his answer was "No, golf"! He is a retired Public Relations officer at the Federal Penitentiary, McNeil Island; and is, at present, Police Officer in Fircrest. With the present "crime wave", his experience, as well as talent, would be most welcome any place — Stay close by, By!

NEXT PRODUCTION

"WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF"

The enormously, successful prize winning Broadway production of this play, by Edward Albee, was a shattering and memorable experience, and proclaimed the author as a major American playwright.

The Play: Playwright Albee tells his entire story during one evening in the home of a professor in a small college. He and his wife return late at night, intoxicated, from a Saturday night party. She announces, amidst general profanity, that she has invited another couple—a new instructor and his wife—to stop by for a nightcap. The visitors are a tough and opportunistic instructor and his shatteringly naive bride. Drinks flow faster and darker, inhibitions melt. And, underneath the edgy banter which is cross-fired between both couples, there is an undercurrent of tragedy and despair. It becomes increasingly evident that the elder couple's almost inhuman bitterness toward one another—her outrageous and his sadistic revenge-taking—are provoked by an enormous personal sadness which they have pledged to keep secret to themselves.

The suspense mystery unfolds slowly in the last act, and in the end when all the cards have been played, we are strenuously moved by the degrading mess they made of their lives.

A revealing and completely engrossing drama!

Reservations start Sept. 8.

Show opens Oct. 20.

Welcome

To The TACOMA LITTLE THEATRE!

Community Theatre is a living, shared art, not a private or personal one. A finished production is achieved only through a fusion of many elements, each equally important—a play, actors, a director, technical crews, front theatre crews and many, many volunteer workers. But without that magic ingredient, An Audience, there can be no community theatre.

YOUR Little Theatre is a melting pot where people from all walks of life, from every economic bracket, and with widely diverse skills and talents come together. Each contributes what he is best able to give, and the result is “community” theatre in its finest sense.

Our Board of Directors, volunteer workers and theatre staff are all working to bring the finest possible entertainment to the greatest number of people. Only if we have your continuing loyalty and support can we truly become an important cultural asset to Tacoma and the surrounding communities.

We have one of the best community theatre plants in the Northwest, and we are especially proud of the fact that through your hard work and support it is entirely paid for. But, we must have your cooperation in bringing your friends to the theatre, encouraging them to get season tickets, etc., if our current operating expense is paid.

Won't you help us make Tacoma Little Theatre a vital, moving force in Tacoma's cultural activities? We want to make this theatre one that will be a credit not only to the city of Tacoma, but to the entire Northwest.
