WHO'S WHO

by Sharry O'Hare

We are fortunate to acquire the talents of Michael Self to direct tonight's moving drama. He has a innumerable list of credits from the Centurion Playhouse, his most recent being "H.M.S. Pinafore." — An import from Houston, Texas, Elizabeth Smith has a masters degree in theatre arts from the University of Houston. 6th grader Debbie Whitsell from Truman Elementary School is an accomplished young lady with 2 plays behind her. She is a Girl Scout and likes to swim and play the piano. Nancy Pitzen has a wealth of experience for one so young including supporting roles in TLT's "Gypsy" and Lakewood Players "Oliver". Newcomers — Karen Anderson, Steve Fortson and Bill Arends are making their TLT debut, but all three have worked with Lakewood Players. Karen, a graduate of PLU in communication arts is a secretary at Ashford-McAloon Brokers. Steve teaches social science at Foss and enjoys tennis and skiing. A history buff and librarial maniac, Bill has his own agency representing Farmers Insurance . . . . Coming to us from the music department of the Centurion Playhouse is Eric Lee. He has a degree in music from Western Washington State College and teaches elementary school in Yelm . . . . This is the second appearance on our stage this season for Lynda Clark and Mark Matthies . . . . Lynda was in "Girls in 509" and Mark, "Nightwatch" . . . . Prior to TLT, Jeanne Clegg did community theatre and college theatre at Stevens College where she obtained a degree in theatre arts. She also did a TV series in New Orleans. She Co-ordinates volunteer services for the City of Tacoma . . . . Jan Simon attends school at Idlewild. This is her first play. Members of the TLT Junior Theatre who are also doing their first major production are Paris Davis, Annette Kinney, Gary Hanson, Robin Zuch and Mary Fitzpatrick.
