WHO’S WHO

by Dianna Darland

Debbie Burrow spends most of her time caring for her four month old daughter. This is her first show in community theater although she studied acting at the American Academy of Performing Arts in North Hollywood for six years. Joe Baker who also comes to us from Green River Community College, where he is the director of the Youth Theatre, works at Shakeys Pizza Parlor. David Hockman last seen as Mr. Cherry in “Idiots Delight” says this is the only theater he has worked in where he is allowed to play someone his own age. Having just completed her reign as Miss Wheel Chair Washington (1974-75), Jane Riese is doing her first show in seven years. Jane has been more active in politics than theater in the past few years, working for the passage of legislation giving equal rights to the handicapped. A drama student at Green River Community College, Karen Conrad is appearing in her first role at TLT. A new comer to Tacoma, Wallace Pedersen, is a stage veteran from New York where he appeared in many shows including Mame, Life With Father, and Damn Yankees. Another new comer to Tacoma, Charlotte Carr, works as a speech Therapist for the Bethel School District. She is single, enjoys acting, sewing and silk screening. A TLT regular, Karen Havnaer is writing a collection of “good” poetry in her spare time.
