WHO'S WHO

Although this years selection of plays is based on the theme of nostalgia, many new faces have been seen on stage at TLT since the opening show in September. "Hearts" is no exception. This show has many cast members who are in their first year at TLT. Jan Aldrich graduated from PLU and sang with "The Choir of the West" while there. Jan now teaches voice and played in the season opener "Idiot's Delight". This is also Quincy Knowlen's 2nd show with us. She played one of Harry's Girls in "Idiot's Delight". Quincy was in "Oliver" at Lakewood Players and "Fiddler On The Roof" at the Centurion Playhouse. Her hobby's are indian wood carving, singing and theatre. A third member of the "Idiot's Delight" cast who appears in "Hearts" is Bob Fite. Bob taught at Peninsula college for five years and was active in theatre in Port Angeles. Frank Hope's first play for us was "George Washington Slept Here" although he has done plays at Seattle's Skid Road Theatre. He likes Water-skiing, horseback riding and Shakespeare. This is Rory Hunt's first time on stage anywhere. Until three months ago he lived in Kokomo, Indiana. He said he came down to see about being an usher and ended up being in the play instead. Another member of the cast is Doris Wagner. She hails from St. Johns, Newfoundland. She has done shows at the Centurion Playhouse but this is her first for TLT. Chuck Mathews put in thirty years in the military and decided to try acting as a hobby. He was last seen in the Fort Steilacoom Community College production "Of Mice And Men". Julie McPherson is also a new comer to TLT. She came down to tryout because a friend of hers asked her. Marcia Stanfield is a drama major at UPS. Last summer she appeared in their production of "Man of La Mancha". She hopes to teach drama and music at the high school level. Rounding out the list of newcomers to TLT is Carol Suess. She is assistant to the Director of the Learning Skills Service at PLU. During the summer she tours with a duo called "Carol, Dean and Guitar". Each show should have some veterans in it to help the less experienced members. Mary Kelley has been active at TLT both on stage and back stage. Mary said she feels well qualified to play the mother in this show. She has four sons, three are lawyers and one is an air traffic controller. Mary was last seen in "Night Watch". Georgette Hansen also has been active in theatre in the Tacoma area. She has done shows at TLT, Lakewood Players, Centurion Playhouse and FSCC. Georgette's last show here was "My Fair Lady". Tom Birkeland is both an actor and director with many credits to his name. His most recent are "Company" for the Lakewood Players and "George Washington Slept Here". The youngest member of the cast is Nancy Pitzen. Don't let her age fool you. She has been active in theatre for a number of years. Starting out in TLT's Junior Theatre, she has had major roles in "Gypsy", "Oliver" and "Blue Kangaroo". She is currently studying dance under the direction of Jan Collum.
