WHO'S WHO

BARBARA SIMPSON — Barbara is very active with TLT. She is currently serving as an officer on the Executive Board, which is a full time hobby in itself. She directed “The Sunshine Boys” for us last year.

TOM GOLDSWORTHY — This is Tom's first year with us. A native of Jersey City, New Jersey and a graduate of Notre Dame, he came to Tacoma this last summer. Tom majored in Film Broadcasting and is interested in working in television.

J. SANBORN CLAPP — John has been active in theatre in Tacoma for a number of years. He has appeared in shows at Lakewood, Steve's Gay 90's, U.P.S. and The Bavarian Restaurant. John was last seen at TLT in “Prescription: Murder”.

KAREN HONN — Karen was active with the Steve's Gay 90's theatre group and then decided to take some time off from the stage. That was 7 years ago. Last year a friend talked her into trying out for “No Sex Please, We're British” and of course she did an outstanding job in her role. Karen is an ultrasonographer for Tacoma General Hospital.

CYNDEE BEGALLIA — Cyndee has lived within 10 blocks of TLT for almost 6 years and had never been inside. She kept telling herself “one of these days I'll try out”. This last August she did try out and tonight you'll enjoy her in the role of Bobbi. Cyndee is a graphic artist for the Tacoma Public Library.

REBECCA SARIO-REYNOLDS — Becky and her husband Mark moved to Tacoma last year from Klamath Falls, where they were very active in theatre. In fact they met while both were appearing in Klamath Fall's production of “Last of the Red Hot Lovers”, with Becky doing the role of Elaine. She will be remembered for her excellent role as Anne Miller in last years “6 Rms Riv Vu”.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. Welcome to the first show of our 60th Anniversary Season. Tacoma Little Theatre is proud to have offered the community for well over a half century a full slate of dramatic entertainment. This season brings with it a new executive board, a new technical director, some new dramatic directors, and lots of enthusiasm. This first show is the result of the talents of one of TLT's most sensitive directors and four of Tacoma's leading actors and actresses. (Rebecca and Karen received the two actress awards in last year's season at TLT.) So enjoy tonight's performance, and please consider buying your season ticket if you have not already done so.

MICHAEL MINOR, President
