Ever considered directing a play at the Tacoma Little Theatre? Contact the theatre box office for more information.

This is the 2nd play that KAREN HAVNAER has directed for us, the 1st being "Dark At The Top Of The Stairs" last season. Though KAREN has been very active at TLT she has also found time to work in other Tacoma area productions, including "Play It Again Sam", which she also directed. She received her BA degree from Pacific Univ. and is employed by the Puget Sound Legal Assistance Foundation. She is a board member of the Northend Artisan Guild, a published poet, and is working on ideas for her own play. JULIE STORHOLT is making her 1st appearance at TLT. She has performed in "The King And I" and "Father's Coming To Dinner" in Alaska. She received her AA degree from Keystone Junior College in LaPlume, Penn. and is employed by Nendels Restuarant. JULIE enjoys bowling, bridge and reading. SYDNEY BOND is a freshman at Pacific Lutheran Univ., majoring in Communications. She was last seen in "Dark At The Top Of The Stairs" at TLT. SYDNEY has also appeared in "Romeo and Juliet". INGRID BOXBERGER is another actress who is doing her 1st for TLT. She has appeared in "The Litter Bug", "The Crucible" and "You Can't Take It With You". INGRID is a senior at Penninsula High and enjoys writing poetry and music. INGRID wishes to extend a special thanks to her father for his support during this play. TRACY THOMPSON is also making her 1st appearance for us. She has had leading roles in "Blithe Spirit", "Man Who Came To Dinner", and "High Window". TRACY is a senior at Wilson High and enjoys roller skating, music, writing and drama. This is the 1st stage appearance for BECKY JOHNSON. She was Assistant Director in "Dark At The Top Of The Stairs" at TLT. BECKY received her BA degree at Evergreen State College and is employed by the Puget Sound Legal Assistance Foundation. She also teaches at Tacoma Community College.
