THIS MONTH IN THE STAGE DOOR GALLERY:

PACIFIC GALLERY ARTISTS

During the run of "Kiss Me Kate," the work of members of Pacific Gallery Artists will grace our gallery. Active in Tacoma since 1947, the group is made up largely of professional painters, sculptors and craftsmen, all of whom participate and win prizes in many local art shows. P.G.A.'s stated Purpose and Objective is to "promote progressive art, promote and stimulate the interest of the public in the work of local artists." Annual events include the presentation of a scholarship to a talented college student, an auction and wine tasting fundraiser and a large Open Show. Many of the best-known and most talented artists in this area are among P.G.A.'s membership.

WE'RE THE WEST'S OLDEST COMMUNITY THEATRE--BUT WE'VE GOT NEWS FOR OUR SUBSCRIBERS!

1981-82 (our 63rd season!) is going to be a great year for Tacoma Little Theatre; we mean it when we say you won't want to miss it. Our new Artistic Director, Stewart Hawk, will be working hard to make our productions consistently high in quality. Our new subscription system means you can reserve the seats you want for the full season—and no more calling the box office or standing in line! And our new slate of plays? Nothing but the best of the old and the new, starting in September with "A Thousand Clowns," followed by "The Royal Family," "Bedroom Farce," "Death of a Salesman," "Born Yesterday"—and we'll wrap it up in June with that star-struck musical, "Gypsy!"

SUBSCRIBE NOW, GET ALL OF THOSE THINGS, AND SAVE MONEY TOO!

Adult Subscription: $25 (Single Ticket Buyers will pay $30)
Seniors & Students: $20 (Single Ticket Buyers will pay $24)

ONLY SUBSCRIBERS SEE SIX PLAYS FOR THE PRICE OF FIVE!

Stop by the box office to pick up a brochure, describing the season and subscriber benefits in more detail, an order blank, and/or more information.
