Director's Bio

Originally from Detroit, graduated from Western Michigan University, John Olive has been involved in theatre for over 20 years. John has acted and directed on stages all over the country. Presently the Artistic Director of the Lakewood Players, he has been in the Northwest for two years now and directed The Fantastics for the Renton Civic Theatre, where he also appeared in Sleuth. At the Lakewood Players he has directed The Elephant Man and Arsenic and Old Lace. John has also performed in various roles at the Spokane Enterplayers.

Director's Notes

I like this play mostly because it is a story of a hero who, in the face of danger, inspired by love, and armed with his wit, confronts his worst enemy—life—in order to win the greatest prize—living. He suffers from the “Disease of Kings”; he is an hemophiliac.

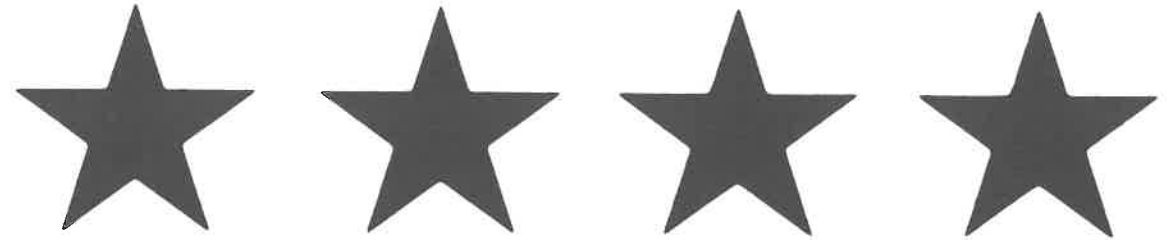

I would like to dedicate this production to the memory of my sister, Dusty Sprague, who, like Chandler, confronted a similar dilemma and decided to make the most of her life.

About the Cast

Chandler, Fred W. Parr

Fred Parr has appeared in productions of The Clumsy Custard Horror Show and The Crucible as well as The Music Man. His most recent role was Mr. Hoskins (a dead body) in the Lakewood Players production of Arsenic and Old Lace. He is very happy to be working with the cast and director of this play. This play is only the beginning of hopefully a very long career in acting for him.

Scagg, J. Quincy Smith

Made my theatre debut on this very stage at the age of 12 in the 1978 production of Wait Until Dark. It is very appropriate that my acting trek has brought me back to the place of my beginning. I will be moving to California to attend the California Institute of the Performing Arts next fall.

Mary Ann, Robin Dolson

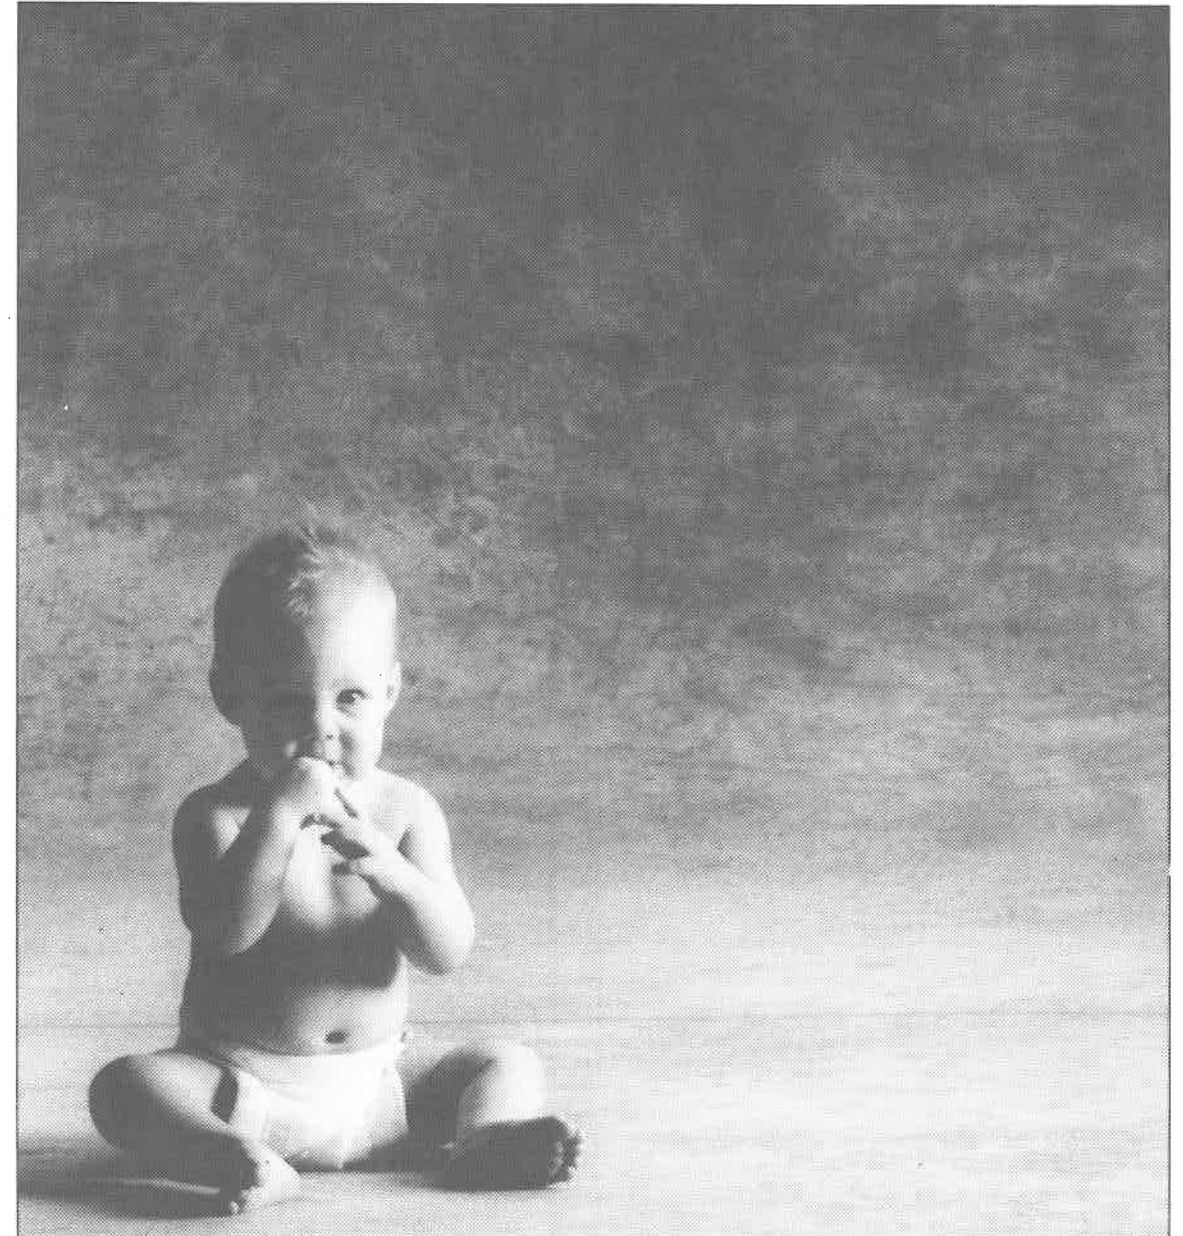

Robin, a native Tacoman, makes her (better later than never) debut in TLT's Shivaree. She attended drama class at TCC, Anderson Talent Management Seminars, and recently completed an eight-week actor's workshop at the Lakewood Players. Her interests include writing, waterfront walks and conversation. Robin presently resides in Gig Harbor with her son Kevin, and stays active supporting him in school and athletic endeavors.

Shivaree, Jennifer R. Bradley

For many years acting has played a big role in Jennifer's life, allowing her to release energy and life to others. Her first production was in 1966 in Oregon and the list goes on from there. Some of her credits in this area include Amy Spitique in Charlie's Aunt and the Sound of Music at the Capitol Playhouse '24 in Olympia and, with the Abbey Players at the Washington Center for the Performing Arts, Kiss Me Kate, My Fair Lady, and Carousel. Jennifer is a Licensed Massage Practitioner at Beauregards. She has a BA from the Evergreen State College and is a fitness specialist here in Tacoma through Pierce College. Her hobbies include fitness and solo singing.

Laura, Heather Williams

I have always wanted to be an actress, since I was two years old! My last performance was in the Spring of 1988 when I portrayed Moth in Shakespeare's Love's Labor's Lost with TCC's Drama Class. I hope this is the first step toward a life-long involvement with both the theatre and film.

We have plans for your future.
