Director's Bio

Over the last 20 years, Jo Gerhard has done more than 50 shows on stages, in classrooms, and on the radio, directing more than two dozen of them. At TLT she directed The Little Foxes in 1987, and had so much fun doing Laundry & Bourbon / Lone Star in 1991 that she couldn't resist the opportunity to do another small town Texas comedy here. Other directing adventures include: A Midsummer Night's Dream, What the Butler Saw, The Children's Hour, Agnes of God and Angry Housewives. Ms. Gerhard serves on the Island Theatre board of Directors on Whidbey Island. She breeds mice at the UW (for a living) and Scottish Fold cats at home (for fun).

Director's Notes

Talking with friends in January this year about their recent holiday experiences I was struck by a common thread. Bringing families together is more than fond embraces and shared memories. It's a molotov cocktail of simmering grievances and unrealized expectations that can result in complicated, awkward situations and dazzling emotional fireworks that range from the hilarious to the terrifying. There's just something about a crises (or a holiday) that not only pulls a family together, but stretches it to the breaking point. So if watching the Turnovers strikes you as somehow...familiar - don't be too surprised. We're all stuck with our families, that, for the most part, we really do love - whether we can stand them or not.

Cast Bios

Orville Turnover, David Hall - Type cast again? The last time Dave was at TLT he played the less-than-likable Ezekial Cheever in The Crucible. Dave has been dividing his time between TLT and Lakewood Players, either hanging witches or out pirating. Dave works in Lakewood and lives with his beloved bride Kathy.

Harmony Rhodes, Len Kannapell - Len has been groovin' on the TLT stage since 1986, when he was a stand-in for the role of Sir Percy Shorter in Habeus Corpus. He was last seen as the back-slidin' preacher C.C. Showers in The Diviners at TLT this past season. Other roles that gave him good vibes were the pedant in ETC's The Taming of the Shrew and Roy in Lone Star two years ago. To afford this lifestyle, he has been an engineer for the ailing aerospace giant Boeing for seven years. He would like to dedicate this show to his dad.

Marlene Turnover, Robyn McKechnie-Stalder - Robyn was last seen as Elizabeth in TLT's production of Laundry & Bourbon. Before that she played Nellie in TLT's production of The Fox, the show where she met her husband. She married him a year later on the TLT stage. She has worked in theatres in the Seattle, Tacoma and Olympia area for the past 12 years. Some of her favorite parts have been Gwen in Fifth of July, Meg in Crimes of the Heart, Charlotte in Female Transport and Grace in What I Did Last Summer.

Sara Lee Turnover, McKenna Michals - McKenna was last seen at TLT as Meg in Crimes of the Heart. She has been acting and directing in the Tacoma area since 1976. Her favorite roles include Titania/Hippotyia in A Midsummer Nights Dream, Regan in King Lear, Rosalind in As You Like It, Jeannette in Lady's not for Burning, Lissie in Rainmaker and Stella in A Street Car Named Desire. "It's been great to be working with Jo, Robyn & Tracy".

Lurlene Turnover Rogers, Marilyn Mauer - This is Marilyn's first appearance at TLT. Past credits include Ruth in Pirates of Penzance, Princess Winifred in Once Upon a Mattress and Granny in Into the Woods. In real life, Marilyn is a girl scout leader, a judge for the Washington State Board of Industrial Insurance appeals and is the mother of 3 incredibly bright, talented children.

Buford "Daddy" Turnover, John E. Miller - A retired army officer, he first appeared in 1984 in the quartet of Music Man and has since been seen in many regional theatres and in shows such as Amadeus, The Importance of Being Earnest, Whodunnit and The Foreigner. His favorite roles to date are Alfred P. Doolittle in My Fair Lady and Cap'n Andy in three different productions of Showboat. He performed in The Secret Garden as the crotchety gardener, and also appeared as Father Drobney in Don't Drink the Water. He performed with his real-life wife, Barbara in On Golden Pond, and was last seen at TLT in this season's production of The Crucible.

Mama Wheelis, Syra Beth Puett - Syra is a veteran of over 50 productions in seven states and three countries, recently played Linda Lohman in the production of Death of a Salesman in Daejeon, Korea. At TLT she appeared as Amanda in Glass Menagerie, Kate in Kiss Me Kate, and Birdie in The Little Foxes. Elsewhere, she has played Laurie in Oklahoma, Hodel in Fiddler, Beverly in Shadow Box, Lizzie in Rainmaker and Hannah in Night of the Iguana, among others. Puett teaches music at Franklin Elementary School in Tacoma.

Evalita Turnover, Tracy Thompson - Tracy is delighted to be back at TLT after a two year hiatus and to be playing such a challenging role as Evalita. Some of her other credits include Laundry and Bourbon, See How They Run, Pack of Lies, Sherlocks Last Case and Educating Rita.
