Other directing credits include Dracula, Barefoot in the Park, Everyman, and Waiting for Godot. Next up for Marie is directing and choreographing The Wizard of Oz for the Orcas Center on Orcas Island this summer! Marie sends special thanks to Eric and Frederic!

"This is not just a show about Jews living in Russia in 1905, although it is that, on the surface. At its heart it's about the enduring strength of the human spirit - and man's ability to grow, to change, to overcome adversity."

—Robert Altman

Musical Director, Michael Frasier - Fiddler marks Michael's Tacoma debut. Michael is from Olympia, where in the past eight years, he has done over 30 musicals. Some of his favorites have been West Side Story, Peter Pan and Li'l Abner. During the day, Michael works as an accountant for an Olympia law firm, and, on Sundays, he plays the organ and directs the choir for Unity Church of Olympia. In his spare time, Michael likes to . . . sleep! Michael hopes you'll sit back, relax, and enjoy one of his favorite musicals.

75 and Growing

The 1993/94 Season marks Tacoma Little Theatre's 75th Anniversary. A year-long celebration is being planned and coordinated by the 75th Anniversary Committee made up of more than 30 volunteers dedicated to ensuring everyone has a BIG time at Tacoma Little Theatre next season.

If you are interested in helping create a lobby display on the theatre's history, working on publicity, assisting with special events, or play promotions we hope you'll join us for some serious fun.

This column in future playbills will introduce you to new ways to get involved.

The special events sub-committee, of the 75th Anniversary Committee, for example is planning a Birthday Party for September 18th. This is a free event for the whole family.

If you would like to join them or would like more information on the 75th Anniversary Committee's activities stop by the information table in the lobby. We welcome the opportunity to help you become a member of our company.
