

TLT Flex Passes make great holiday gifts!
 With each pass, you can see all the wonderful mixture of shows remaining in the 94/95 season all for only $41 or $46 (That's about the price of a movie for each show!)
 Purchase by Dec. 1st and receive a special gift!

SPECIAL THANKS

Lund Floral Company, Mark Schmidt of The
 Marksman, Inc., Muzzleloaders Supply,
 Carla & Michael Resnick,
 First Congregational Church, Betty Cullen

Don't Miss
 Joined at the Head

"...wins both ways, as a comedy & a play about the discovery of kinship."

-NY Times

Jan 20 - Feb 4
 1995

PRODUCTION STAFF

Director	Mark Sheppard
Stage Manager	Kye Holtan
Scenic Design	William Wayburn
Costume Designer	Debianne Owen-Craft
Lighting Design	Len Kannapell
Sound Design	Judith Cullen
Properties	Linda Duley
Asst. Stage Manager (Rehearsal)	Jack Wickersham
Asst. Stage Manager (Production)	Rebecca Rex
Stage Crew	Joe Craft
Master Carpenter	Warren E. Crain
Scenic Construction	Mike Cleaveland, Karen Davis, Johnny Johnson Annette Levgard, Bruce Tulloss
Scenic Painting	Tracy Berryman, Pauline Hainse, Cynthia Rosa
Costume Construction	Debianne Owen-Craft
Lighting Crew	Jay Adams, Kye Holtan, Gary Huston Sam Izenman, Bill Kegley
Lightboard Operators	Sam Izenman, Gary Huston

To Kill a Mockingbird

Tacoma Little
 Theatre
 76th Season

Sponsored by Boeing Co.

To Kill a Mockingbird

by Christopher Sergel

Based on the Pulitzer Prize
Winning Novel by Harper Lee

In Order of Appearance:

Renaë Tucker Scout Finch
Suzy Willhoft Jean
Joyce A. Jimenez Calpurnia
Maggie Gray Miss Maudie
Debianne Owen-Craft Miss Stephanie
John Pfaffe Heck Tate
Jack Wickersham Judge Taylor
Chad Russell Jem Finch
Jeanne L. Ross Mrs. Dubose
Dale Bundrant Rev. Sykes

Colin Jacob Lapin Dill
Clark Maffitt Atticus Finch
Randy Clark Mr. Gilmer,
Mr. Cunningham
Dennis Rolley Bob Ewell
Jomo Tom Robinson
Linda Duley Court Clerk
Anne Cocké Mayella Ewell
Michael Griswold Boo Radley
Link Deas
Samantha Harold Helen Robinson

DEDICATION

Dedication to Doyle Smith

On Saturday, October 29, 1994,

Tacoma Little Theatre lost one of its most enthusiastic leaders. Doyle Smith was a well known face here having volunteered as an actor, technician, historian, fund raiser and more — he was even Managing Director!

Doyle's good work, good will and tremendous spirit will remain with us. His efforts make up one of the most significant contributions on record at this seventy-six year old institution.

As a tribute to Doyle's years of dedication and excellent service, we at Tacoma Little Theatre dedicate, To Kill A Mockingbird, to his memory.

DIRECTOR'S BIO

Mark Sheppard marks his tenth production at TLT with To Kill a Mockingbird. A drama teacher at Northwest School and Lakeside in Seattle, Mark is Past-chair of Washington Alliance for Arts Education. As an actor, he has played Tom Thumb (Empty Space Theatre) and Bilbo Baggins (U. of Wash).

"Where are today's heroes?"

Perhaps those who quietly teach our children through examples of integrity and understanding serve as our modern heroes. And certainly those who risk all to protect them are our modern saints.

"I give this play with hope, pride and love to Kristi and Marty, the Scout and Jem of my own life."

—Mark Sheppard, 1994

ACTOR BIOS

Dale Bundrant, Reverend Sykes, a native Detroit, moved to Tacoma in 1984 to work at KPLU-FM. Reverend Sykes marks a return to Theatre after a 15 year hiatus. His last stage performance was in Robert Sherwood's Petrified Forest.

Randy Clark, Mr. Gilmer, Mr. Cunningham, is a local actor who has often performed at TLT, most recently appearing as Frank in Educating Rita.

Anne Cocké, Mayella, is graduating from Pacific Lutheran University with a BA in Theatre. This is her third performance at TLT. She is happy to be performing with such a talented team.

Linda Duley, Clerk, after five years behind the scenes at TLT, is making her debut on the stage.

Maggie Gray, Miss Maudie, is delighted to be back at TLT, having last appeared here as Dorothea in Eleemosynary. She enjoys her children, grandchildren, Italian food, long walks, & her 3 cats.

Michael J. Griswald, Boo Radley, is very happy to be back at TLT where he has played in All My Sons, and The Crucible. He most recently performed in Lakewood Players' production of The Tempest.

Joyce A. Jimenez, Calpurnia, is a 22 year old who enjoys acting, singing and working with youth. She has participated in a number of church plays, but is making her first theatre appearance. She is very proud to be finishing her college education at TCC.

Jomo, Tom Robinson, was born and raised in Waycross, Georgia during the period that random terrorism was practiced "Keeping Negroes in their place!" His last performance for TLT was Tinman in The Wiz.

Colin Jacob Lapin, Dill, is a sixth grader at Firgrove Elementary School in Puyallup. He has performed in a variety of school plays including the musicals Roundup at Miracle Ranch and Cinderella.

Clark Maffitt, Atticus. Appearing for the first time with TLT, Clark has worked as a professional musician and performed in theatre for the past 30 years.

Debianne Owen-Craft, Miss Stephanie, Costumer, having worked in the theatre for 20+ years, both on stage and behind the scenes, is pleased to be involved in a play of this magnitude. Musical comedy is her forté, so not having to worry about singing is a fun change.

John M. Pfaffe, Heck Tate. This is John's first appearance at TLT. He recently moved to the Puget Sound area because he hates sun and loves coffee.

Jeanne Ross, Mrs. Dubose, made her debut in the Washington area last season in The Diary of Anne Frank at Lakewood Playhouse and is very excited at the opportunity to be involved with TLT.

Chad Russell, Jem Finch, is a 7th grader at Jason Lee Middle School. He was last seen as the Artful Dodger, in TLT's production of OLIVER!. He hopes to continue his acting career.

Renaë Tucker, Scout Finch, is 11 years old and goes to Hunt Middle School. She enjoys acting and was last seen in TLT's production of OLIVER!.

Jack Wickersham, Judge Taylor, a free lance writer, has been active as an actor, director and playwright in college, community and regional theatre as well as TV and film. A newcomer to the Tacoma/Seattle area, Jack was attracted by the active Northwestern Theatre and its constant growth.

Suzy Willhoft, Jean Louise Finch, recently appeared at TLT in The Good Times are Killing Me and assistant directed The Best Christmas Pageant Ever. She has also appeared in plays in the Washington D.C. area.