Bubbling Brown Sugar is a Musical tour that takes you back to the twenties and thirties. Back to an era of richness and of high culture that brought together all races and creeds. This was known as the "Harlem Renaissance Period." Where the literary and intellectual movement was composed of a generation of black writers, poets, novelists and artists such as Langston Hughes, W.E.B. Du Bois, Zora Neale Hurston, and Aaron Douglas and well-known musicians and entertainers like Duke Ellington, Cab Calloway, Josephine Baker and Billy Holiday, all of whom were defined by Carole Marks in The Power of Pride as "the preeminent stylemakers of this era".

Bubbling Brown Sugar is the catalyst for several great Broadway shows: Sophisticated Ladies and Ain't Misbehavin'. It's filled with music from great composers such as The Duke, Earl Hines, Eubie Blake and Billy Holiday. And takes to you to famous nightspots like The Cotton Club, The Savoy Ballroom and Smalls Paradise.

This production is pure entertainment, but also an important historical aspect of our own history, during a time where African-Americans fled the south and moved north building a stance of equality for a people.
