Tacoma's Community Theatre For 89 Years!

It is our absolute pleasure to welcome you to the opening show of Tacoma Little Theatre's 89th Season! and what a season it promises to be....

This season our mainstage shows include the delightful musical fantasy SLEEPING BEAUTY, the hysterical farce BLITHE SPIRIT, the classic American drama CAT ON A HOT TIN ROOF and the timelessly exhilarating musical, THE PAJAMA GAME. With all there is to bring stress into our lives on daily basis, we encourage you to become a season subscriber so you can regularly return to our feast of theatrical diversions at considerable savings to you.

In addition to our mainstage offerings, our 2nd Stage Season includes some of the best contemporary theatre available - including a world premier version of DRACULA, the highly satirical comedy THE COLORED MUSEUM, the legendary rock musical CHESS as this season's musical in concert, and a completely engaging evening with American author GERTRUDE STEIN GERTRUDE STEIN GERTRUDE STEIN. Truly this is a season with something for everyone and enough variety for a 9-course meal!

All of us who are involved with TLT are very excited about the changes that are slowly but surely taking place here - from the face-lifting of the outside of our building and lobby to the resurgence of new talent eager to perform on our stage. As Mame Dennis says in tonight's story: "Life is a banquet...", and as we prepare to move from our 9th decade to our 10th, we have never been more aware of the banquet we share with the Tacoma/Pierce county community. We thank everyone who contributes to Tacoma Little Theatre in any way - especially those of you who come here to allow us the honor of entertaining you.

We look forward to serving you throughout this delectable season!

A Fairy Tale by Charles Way; Music & Lyrics by Chad Henry

Directed by Charlotte Tiencken

Welsh playwright Charles Way and Seattle composer/lyricist Chad Henry have created a beautiful, funny and touching version of this classic tale, returning many elements of the Brothers Grimm's original story and weaving in contemporary life lessons. Originally produced by Seattle Children's Theatre.

Blithe Spirit

February 8 - March 2

Improbable Farce by Noel Coward

Directed by Steve Tarry

One of Coward's best plays, this smash comedy hit of both London and Broadway stages continues to provide a full evening of laughs after 67 years! Suddenly finding his home invaded by not one but two wives in ghostly form, how Charles Condomine manages to free himself from this bizarrely bigamist reality makes this, as Coward described it, "an improbable farce" in the first degree!

Cat on a Hot Tin Roof .....

April 11 - May 4

Classic Drama by Tennessee Williams

Directed by Allen Fitzpatrick

Among the classics of contemporary American drama, the story centers around Maggie and her husband Brick as the play wrestles with issues of alcoholism, fidelity, greed, terminal illness and sexuality. Ultimately Brick learns his true feelings for his father and his wife, and Maggie's ingenuity triumphs over the destructive and acquisitive plans of her conniving in-laws.

The Pajama Game

DIRECTOR'S NOTES

When the novel AUNTIE MAME was published in 1955 it was an instant hit. Some people still think that the story is actually autobiographical - that myth perpetuated by author Edward Everett Tanner publishing it under the name of Patrick Dennis - but while Mame is inspired by a real-life friend of the author, in truth the story is fictitious. Mame, however, has proven that she has more staying power than most mortals. I certainly have always considered her one of my strongest mentors. She has been an inspiration to every generation that has come in contact with her. In fact, I can think of no one who has spent any amount of time with her or her life story who has not fallen completely in love with this wonderful, witty, passionate, eccentric, loving and wise woman. If our production is your first introduction to her, you are in for a treat. If you have come to re-visit your old friend, we welcome you back to what we are sure is a home away from home.

If nothing else, this is a story devoted to the celebration that family is who and where you find it. I dedicate this production to my own aunt, who has several of Mame's characteristics (though not to Mame's extreme), and to my mother, who I believe always wanted to but never quite allowed herself the freedom to live with such genuine abandon.... two women who, in their own ways, helped me to confirm Mame's credo that Life is indeed a Banquet!

Bon Appetite! -- David Duvall, Director
